INDIAN SERIAL SHOWS EARLY AMERICAN DAYS

"Last of the Mohicans" Full of Thrills; Sentinel Plans Essay Contest.

James Fenimore Cooper's immortal classic of pioneer days in eastern United States, "The Last of the Mohicans," will be shown in serial form at the Arcade, the first episode, "Wild Waters," to be shown Saturday.

Nat Levine, producer of "The Last of the Mohicans," says that his serial is a faithful adaptation of Cooper's immortal classic, retaining all the glamor, romance and thrilling action of this great novel of early America.

Harry Carey and Edwin Booth, stars of "Trader Horn," who were seen together last season in "The Vanishing Legion," head the cast. Carey will be seen in the role of Hawkeye and Booth will play the romantic part of Cora.

The 12 episodes are "Wild Waters," "Flaming Arrows," "Rifle or Tomahawk," "Riding with Death," "Shadows," "The Last of the Gold," "The Crimson Trail," "The Tide of Battle," "A Redskin's Honor," "The Enemy's Stronghold," "Pale Fire Magic," and "The End of the Trail."

Lorane Woman Is 90 Years Old Today

Mrs. Sarah Jane Crowe, resident of the Lorane section and mother of Mrs. W. J. Walters, Balmbridge, Oregon, will celebrate her ninety birthday anniversary today.

Mrs. Crowe is the mother of a family of seven children, all living. Her husband, John Crowe, died in 1853, the trip taking six months. They landed in the Sacramento valley in California.

Mrs. Crowe was taught by her parents to weave cloth, sew and make clothing for the family. After she was married she owned a spinning wheel. She would card wool for yarn and batts for beds, quilts and comforters.

She still continues her active life, doing her own house work and making things. She is in good health.

Historic American Church

The first Roman Catholic church in America was built at Port Royal in 1604, and on St. John's day, June 24, 1610, the first Christian burial took place when the old chief Memberton and his family received this sacrament from the hands of Father Fleche, a Jesuit priest.

Good Training Any new thing the youngster wants to do to help you, give him a chance to do it. It may cause you a lot more work in the end but it will either teach him how to do the job in the future or else he will learn how much work his parents go to, to do it for him.

Beware of Colds Average Americans have three colds a year regardless of where they live and what they do about it. According to the public health service, the common cold is the greatest single factor in economic loss because of illness in America, which amounts to some $800,000,000 annually.

Genius Genius, like the lark, is apt to despise its nest upon the earth, and waste its time in fluttering and quavering among the clouds, but common sense is the humbler fowl, which picks up the barley-corn and crows and fattens at leisure.

Life's Great Need It is a curious thing that we should see the full beauty of our lives only when they are passed, or in visions of possible future. What we most need is to see and feel the beauty and joy of today.

Words Great men's words, said one, are like dead men's shoes; he may go barefoot that waiteth for them.—J. Trapp.

High School Notes

The girls' league assembly was held last Thursday with the class representatives in charge of the program. Maurine Shearer, Lillian Hull, Wilma Sutherland and Evelyn Colner gave reports on the girls' league convention at Salem in December.

After the business meeting of the following program, made up of a number furnished by each class, was given: Freshman class, reading by Lorraine Coiner; sophomore class, two tap dances by Audrey Hunt; junior class, two songs, "Waitin' in the Shadows" and "In to the Dawn With You," by the girls' sextet; senior class, piano solo by Thelma Hodgson.

Only two first teams and one second team are entered in girls' basketball this year instead of a first and second team from each class. This change was made because enough students to make a first and second team from each class failed to report for practice.

The girls who have made first teams are: Lisa Mosby, Blanche Paquette, Lucille Bogan, Edith Conn, Daisy Zimmerly, Margaret Wilson, Dorothy Baldwin, Wilma Sutherland, Doris Anlauf, Vivian Rogers, Izola Isham and May Aubrey. Those on the second team are: Lorraine Coiner, Lillian Hull, Aliene Turner, Margaret Stoneburg, Christine Shelburne and Ruth Stowell.
