NUMBER 32

OREGON VOTER TELLS WHAT SALES TAX DOES

Gives Formula by Which to Figure What Tax Would Have Done in 1933.

(Oregon Voter.)
We find property owners are somewhat puzzled about the possible effect of the sales tax on their 1934 property taxes. Several have asked us "what would my taxes be this year if the sales tax had been in effect for the full year?" This is an easier estimate to make than to forecast 1934 taxes.

Assume that the sales tax had been in effect a year ago, so that it would have been in full swing for all of this year, 1933, and that its exemption of personal property applied to 1933 taxes payable on 1932 tax rolls. Also assume that the yield of the sales tax this year, 1933, was fully up to the estimates, so that it would wipe out the general state tax levy of $2,000,000 and also pass $3,000,000 along to the counties for reduction of county and local taxes on property. If these assumptions are granted, your 1933 taxes would be entirely on your estate and such personal property as is not exempted by the sales tax.

In nearly every city and town, your real estate millage would have been less than it is, and in every county and rural district (outside of cities) the real estate millage would have been materially less than it is. And, you would be paying no personal property tax on your livestock, your farm implements, your merchandise and other of your movable tangible personal property.

To ascertain what this real estate rate would have been this year, on your real estate as assessed in 1932, use the following formula:

$(D-R) \div B \times C \div (1-E)$

X—Your 1933 tax rate as is. B—Mills levied by your county to raise the state general tax, and the state elementary school tax. C—Mills levied by your county for the state elementary school tax. D—Decimal by which to multiply to ascertain what the real estate tax would have been to absorb the loss of tax on personal property and still raise the same amount of revenue. E—Decimal representing the proportion by which your county and local tax levies would have been reduced by applying $3,000,000 of sales tax revenues to reduction of county and local taxes.

X—What the rate on real estate would have been, in mills, on your 1933 assessed valuation, if the sales tax had been in effect on this year's 1933 taxes, under the assumptions foregoing.

To ascertain your entire tax saving, apply the X rate to your new net valuation (total 1933 net valuation less valuation of exempted movable tangible personal property), and from this subtract the amount of the 1933 tax as now levied on your movable tangible personal property.

To pick up the figures for each county to apply this formula, see page 7, April 29, 1933, Voter.

County Agent O. S. Fletcher has asked that attention be called to the services of the Lane county voluntary farm mortgage adjustment committee, of which he is secretary. This committee has no legal status but is prepared to aid on a voluntary basis in bringing about satisfactory adjustment between farmers and mortgage holders in order that unnecessary loss or hardship may be avoided in cases where interested persons are unable to make satisfactory arrangements independently.

The following are members of the committee: F. B. Harlow, chairman, Eugene; O. A. Nichols, Cottage Grove; Elmo Chase, Eugene; E. A. McCornack, Eugene.

Pencil Slat Factory Coming Here

This city is to have a new industry, a pencil slat factory. The slats are made ready for the lead. Rough bark cedar is the most suitable wood for the purpose and this is becoming somewhat depleted. Robert H. Savage, Marshallfield, is establishing the factory and says the largest supply of the desired wood of which he knows is found in this section and south from here to Roseburg.

DRIZZLING RAIN DOES NOT STOP BIG PARADE

Mothers' Day Marchers Wear Slickers and Carry Umbrellas.

A drizzling rain did not prevent approximately a thousand persons from joining Sunday in what was believed to be the first Mothers' day parade ever held anywhere. The marchers, led by the city band and battery, "E," formed a line the entire length of Main street. Motion pictures were taken by a Universal news reel representative.

As a result of getting persons out for the parade there were record attendances at Sunday schools and Mothers' day church services.

Many were raincoats or carried umbrellas. The parade was on West Main street. The number was so large that various sections were designated by numbers. Several organizations carried banners and wore distinctive regalia. The Eagles lodge had a float.

Those in line were as follows: Band, battery "E," women's relief corps, F. O. E., F. O. E. auxiliary, Christian Bible school, K. of C., Community Men's Bible class, Degree of Honor, Royal Neighbors, Walker Bible class, American Legion, American Legion auxiliary, U. S. W. V., U. S. W. V. auxiliary, U. O. F., Rebekahs, Silk Creek Bible school, Drain Bible school, Black Butte, Yoncalia Bible school, Dorena.

A large number of the marchers attended the Men's Community class, where a special Mothers' day program was given. Others went to various Sunday schools and church services of the city.

Following church services various basket dinners were held for those from outside points.

Art Smith Chicken Has Three Legs

A chicken with three legs is a monstrosity recently hatched at the Art Smith place on east Main street. The egg was laid by one of R. C. McNew's Columbia Wyandotte hens and the father was one of Mr. Smith's roosters.

The extra limb protrudes from the rear of the chicken and the chick has to be placed by itself because the other chicks picked at the appendage.

Garden Club

TWO GARDENS.
I know two happy gardens. Not very far apart.
One is a lovely blooming thing—One clutches at my heart.
One holds a small red wagon, A shovel and a hoe,
And, working very patiently, A little boy I know.
A little boy who's just past four, With eyes all shiny brown,
And such a dirty little face, And such an anxious frown.
He's planting yellow dandelions, And trying to make them grow
Face upward in the sunshine. In a crooked little thing sublime.
His patience is a thing sublime. When he is finished, is all joy—All loveliness—all grace.
Yes—I know two happy gardens, Not very far apart.
Mine is the lovely blooming thing—His clutches at my heart.
—Lois R. Crawford.

Strong Men Forget Ill One Doesn't

While even members of the advisory committee that passed on the school budget failed to record their votes in its favor at the special election Monday, O. M. Kern, always deeply interested in the welfare of the schools, despite the fact that he has hardly left his home for several years, made the trip to the polls and registered one of the needed favorable votes. Even one member of the school board arrived after the polls had been closed and wasn't able to register his approval.

LUMBER ORDERS BREAK ALL RECORDS SINCE '31

Seattle, May 12.—In a mounting pile of unfilled orders, the West Coast Lumbermen's association today saw the lumber industry "gaining in market strength every day," but continued to caution that eastern buying appears speculative "as increased building is not yet noticeable."

A sharp gain in Atlantic coast sales was attributed to an announced freight rates advance for June loading and an increase in the mill price.

Orders for the week ending May 12 stood at 2,876,000 feet, an increase of 36,410,000 feet from the week before. Inventories of 130 mills were 18.8 per cent less than at this time last year.

A total of 222 down and operating mills reporting to the association produced 9,997,942 feet. The average weekly production so far in 1933 has been about 11,000,000 feet less.

Shipments of 179 mills were over production 9.98 per cent. Unfilled orders stood at 2,876,000 feet, an increase of 36,410,000 feet from the week before. Inventories of 130 mills were 18.8 per cent less than at this time last year.

CITY MAY ASK SOME FEDERAL RELIEF FUND

Council Is to Meet Tonight to Consider Whether Application Shall Be Made.

The city of Cottage Grove probably will ask for $50,000 of federal relief funds for rebuilding its Row river main water line and for improvements to the water system. This will be decided at a special meeting of the council to be held tonight which the public has been urged to attend.

Governor Meier has been requested by the federal government to give a list of public improvements within the state which can be financed with the two-billion-dollar proposed federal unemployment relief fund. Requests for use of this fund must be made within a few days.

There is little information available as to how this huge federal fund is to be disbursed, what projects will be eligible, whether or not the money has to be repaid to the government or what the rate of interest will be if the money is to be repaid. City officials are reluctant to make application without knowing all details. However, it is believed considerable money will have to be spent within the next few years in betterments to the water system and councilmen feel these might as well be started now if the money can be obtained under conditions that are not too burdensome.

The Lane county court has announced that it will make an application for any of this fund if the money does not have to be repaid. The county will apply for its share.

LUMBERMEN AWAIT NEW INDUSTRY ACT

Tacoma, Wash., May 16.—Northwest lumbermen tonight moved to prepare the industry to take advantage of provisions in the industry recovery act now before congress. The meeting was called by the West Coast Lumbermen's association.

The measure would set aside features of the Shoshone land-trust law which have prevented production control, price-fixing and similar regulations long wanted by lumbermen.

Release of restrictions on unit action is regarded by many lumbermen as holding out the biggest hope in years. The meeting declared itself in full accord with the objectives of the proposed national act, including elimination of destructive competition, relief of unemployment, improvement of the standards of labor and removal of conditions and practices which have been causing distress in the industry.

Mrs. Mary C. Aldridge Dies.—Funeral services for Mrs. Mary C. Aldridge, who died Thursday of last week at the home of a son-in-law, A. B. Smith of Gresham, after an illness of four weeks following a stroke of the brain, will be held at 2:30 Monday afternoon from Mills chapel with Rev. I. G. Shaw officiating. Interment will be in the A. F. & A. M. I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Mrs. Aldridge was 84 years of age and came here from California 16 years ago. She is survived by two grandchildren, Mrs. Ernie Tillier, Cottage Grove, and Mrs. John Smith, Portland, and one sister, Mrs. Huffstudd, Benton, Ia.

SCHOOL BUDGET WINS AGAINST OPPOSITION

Unexpected opposition developed to the school budget, which was voted on Monday. However, it was adopted by a vote of 88 to 56.

It has since been learned that reports which had no foundation whatever upon fact were spread over the city to the effect that the budget had been increased 4 mills over last year and that the directors had been changed by an advisory committee. The facts are that the budget is 5.8 mills lower than the budget of a year ago and that it was adopted by the board of directors exactly as adopted by the advisory committee and exactly as published.

MONSTER C. E. RALLY SATURDAY ANNOUNCED

What is expected to be the most largely attended Christian Endeavor convention ever held in the county will be held here Saturday evening, beginning with a potluck dinner at 5:30. The regular rally session will start at 7:30.

The reason that a large attendance is expected is that other units of the county are going to that endeavor to wrest from Cottage Grove the attendance cap which the local unit has won three times in succession.

Auto Kills Bobcat On Main Highway

The first case on record here of a bobcat being killed by being run over by an automobile was reported here this week. Linn Chapman, high school boy, was the operator of the car, the lights of which evidently blinded the varmint. The incident happened on Pacific highway about three miles south of here and this is the first time of record here that a bobcat has ever been seen by one operating a car on a main thoroughfare.

The incident happened as Chapman was starting in the early morning on the high school's first break day, so he secreted the carcass in his car, took it with him and he and other boys told how they had killed it that day by pulling it out of a tree and choking it to death.

Miss Benston Again Champ Speller

Saginaw, May 17.—(Special.)—Mary Alma Benston, for the second consecutive year, is champion speller in the county. Although her record this year is not as high as last, Miss Benston, who is 12 years old and who will be in the seventh grade next year, was neither absent nor late this year and did not misspell a word in her daily record, but misspelled two words in the county examinations. Last year she had a perfect spelling record and a perfect attendance record.

Grandson Is Sent As Mothers' Day Gift

Mrs. I. A. Randall received what is believed to have been a unique Mothers' day remembrance in the person of a grandson, Jackie Dugan, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Dugan of McMinnville. The lad, who is 6 years of age, arrived as a complete surprise and informed his grandmother the purpose of his visit. He accompanied Miss Frances Cox of this city, teacher at McMinnville, who came to spend Mothers' day at her home.

W. A. Woodard Mill In Operation

The W. A. Woodard Lumber company's mill resumed operations Monday morning, after being down for about two years. Mill employees, yard employees and remanufacturing plant employees number approximately 50. The present operation is preliminary to the resumption promised as soon as betterments can be completed.

Theodore Joll, brother of J. A. Joll of Delight valley, has arrived here from Burley, Ida., with his family and expects to open a harness shop. He believes business in this line is to be better since many farmers are discarding tractors for horses.

Guard Camp To Be Held.

Uncertainty as to whether a national guard camp would be held this year has been relieved by receipt at the adjutant general's office of $200,000 to cover costs of such camps. Battery "E" of this city will, therefore, go to camp as usual.

Think What She Lost

Practically all our bodily ailments are our own fault and can be cured without great inconvenience by a proper diet, and this by only changing the method of preparation and the combinations of foods we already are eating. Paul O. Sampson, dietitian, told the chamber of commerce at its Tuesday noon luncheon. His subject was "Koshering Fit."

"We eliminate the earth salts from our wheat, potatoes and other foods and then wonder why we have heart trouble and constipation," Mr. Sampson said. "Foods which do not have a peeling that is naturally removed lose their earth salts when the peeling is removed with a paring knife before being cooked. By this method the rhythmic movement of digestion is interfered with. Cancer is the result of improper eating. Too much sugar, for example, may rob the body of the earth salts. The cells set up a riot for the foods needed, tumor follows and decays, then comes cancer. As a nation we eat 115 pounds of sugar per person annually, and that is one cause of our physical ills, rheumatism, bad teeth, etc. Our foods are too much demineralized. They should be eaten as God made them."

"As an example of wrong ways of eating food that is needed, fruit should follow a meal, instead of going before it. We make beverages of our stomachs by mixing foods in such a way that they clash."

"We have developed scientific feeding for our livestock and chickens, but for ourselves we eat what, how and when we please with no thought for the results."

These supervisors will work under the general supervision of the county agent, who has told them to use care and judgment in their work. They are expected to secure voluntary cooperation of land owners in all cases where possible. Where land owners fail to poison their squirrels, these supervisors have authority to do the work at the expense of the owner. Where poisoning is done on neglected land, the county pays supervisors for time and labor used in the work and charges the expenses to the land for collection with taxes.

Suicide Found Near Drain.—Dorena, May 15.—The body of an unidentified woman, thought to be a hitch-hiker, was found by Blanchard Cellers while he was working on his farm near Dorena, about one mile east of Drain Saturday. The woman was apparently about 30 years of age and had been dead three or four months.

Strips with no means of identification of the body, however, several residents of Drain believe the woman to have been a hiker, remembered to have been going through the town in February.

Coroner Harry Stearns and his deputy with State Policeman Fred Perry of Roseburg were in Drain Sunday investigating. They believe the cause to have been a suicide. A drinking glass and fragments of a note which said "My work is finished—I am going home, sweet home," were found near the body.

Forest Men Go to Camp.—Paul Pieper, district ranger, will leave Monday with eight men who probably will be employed under him this year for the annual three-day guided training camp, which will be held on Cabitt creek, near Glide. The course this year will be advanced work in fire fighting.

Those who will make the trip with Pieper are LaSells Stewart, Ben Prince, Barney Shattuck, Loren Hunt, Harry Williams, George Damewood and two others yet to be selected.

Guard Camp To Be Held.—Uncertainty as to whether a national guard camp would be held this year has been relieved by receipt at the adjutant general's office of $200,000 to cover costs of such camps. Battery "E" of this city will, therefore, go to camp as usual.

WELL, SHE DIDN'T SAY IT EXACTLY THAT WAY—WHAT SHE SAID WAS THAT I WAS ONLY ONE IN A MILLION.

WELL, IF THAT'S THE WAY SHE FEELS, YOU SHOULDN'T FEEL SO BADLY.

OH—I'M NOT FEELING SORRY FOR MYSELF—BUT I DO FEEL SAD.

WELL—ANY ONE HATES TO BE TURNED DOWN.

IT ISN'T THAT EITHER—IT'S JUST THAT I AM SO SORRY FOR HER!
