J. MITCHELL, WESTFIR REPORTED TO BE LOST

Eugene, June 15.—A fear that Joe Mitchell, Westfir, had committed suicide was felt yesterday by relatives, who reported to the sheriff's office that he had been missing since Tuesday night.

The man was last seen Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. riding down the railroad track, carrying a gun. Relatives said he had been very despondent lately. R. W. Putnam of Oakridge, train master, was directing a train for him yesterday.

Mitchell was married only two months ago, officers said. His wife lives at Cottage Grove, but he had gone to Westfir to work.

It is presumed here that Mr. Mitchell is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mitchell, but no member of the family could be reached yesterday. Presumably they had gone to Westfir.

Thieves Work Hard Get Little

Gaining entrance by breaking through a ventilation window under the floor and cutting a hole through the floor is a new method adopted by thieves in this section.
