Brimming Milk Pails Repay Good Breeding

Stock dairy cows of Pacific northwest states last month produced daily nearly 5 pounds more milk per cow than cows of the nation as a whole.

Better breeding again proves its value on a dollar basis. See finest specimens of all breeds of dairy animals as well as other livestock exhibits at Pacific International Livestock Exposition in Portland, October 21-28.

We suggest that a visit to this mammoth exposition, which includes a thrilling Rodeo and Horse Show among its entertainment features, is a business and educational investment for everyone.
