CHICKENS COMING HOME.

The Sentinel already has expressed its opposition to the proposed recall of Governor Meier...

Those who remember the election at which Meier was catapulted into office...

Although the successful gubernatorial candidates had always been associated with big business...

Everything possible was done to arouse the passion and prejudice that was to elevate its author to the highest office within the gift of the people...

We were to have free power for nothing, or something of that sort, no one was quite certain what. Whatever it was, we didn't get it...

Two Spanish matadors are coming here to show American how they throw the matadors, or their stuff...

The Astorian-Hudget makes the suggestion that school teachers, unable to cash their warrants...

Another Bakery Opens. The George M. Mead family from Somerton, Ariz., have opened a bakery in the former City Bakery location...

CHISELERS. We hear a great deal these days about chiselers, and such persons are held up to us as some kind of arch criminals...

Our esteemed and sometimes accurate contemporary, the Eugene Register-Guard, refers to Congressman Walter E. Pierce...

A scientist tells us mosquitoes prefer sweetened water to blood. Some of the stuff they have been coming to Oregon from the modern lounge lizard isn't even that strong.

Office Supplies. The Sentinel.
