A NEW IDEA IN HOME LIGHTING

● This new idea in home lighting is so great an improvement over methods commonly in use in the home that everyone should try out this new method at the first opportunity.

A new type floor lamp furnishes either overhead room illumination, flooding the entire room with shadowless light, or the conventional, shaded reading light, directed downward for individual use... or both room lighting and individual reading light combined. These lamps are now being made by many manufacturers and may be purchased at your dealer's. This new idea in home lighting is a definite improvement. Why not try one in YOUR living room tonight.
