The Research club met Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Fay Isom as program leader and Miss Nora Ward as assistant. The topic for discussion was "Archibald MacLeish." Mrs. Isom reviewed the book, "Frescoes of Mr. Rockefeller's City," and Miss Ward gave a biographical sketch of the author. Mrs. A. W. Shofstall reviewed a magazine article on "Yellow Fever." Roll call was given and the club voted to make a dress and undergarment to be sent to the children's farm home at Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Strobeck of Eugene, former Cottage Grove residents, and Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Rose entertained with a party Wednesday evening of last week at the Rose home. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Donnell Allen, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Nortwick, Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Wicks and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Shofstall.

The Ad Libitum club entertained with a 1 o'clock covered dish luncheon Thursday of last week at the home of Mrs. E. E. Cone. The table was attractive with a centerpiece of daffodils. Mrs. Harry Godard was welcomed as a new member and the afternoon was spent quilting for Mrs. Cone.

Postal Cards

(OR SMALL CIRCULARS)

100 for 50c

ADDITIONAL 100, 20c

Often someone desires to send out a small number of postal cards, or small circulars, each to have the same reading matter. The work of typewriting requires considerable time, yet the person desiring to make the mailing does not believe the cost of printing is warranted. It is to meet this situation that The Sentinel has equipped itself to produce small mimeographed forms.

When customer furnishes stock and prepares stencil, 100 will be produced for 50 cents and usually may be delivered a few minutes after order is placed. When The Sentinel prepares the stencil, or furnishes paper, a slight extra charge will be made. Stencils may be purchased from The Sentinel at 10c each.

Additional quantities, stock furnished by customer, will be printed at the rate of 20 cents the 100
