

SENIOR CLASS PLAY ON NEXT FRIDAY.

The senior class play, "Captain Applejack," will be presented at 8 o'clock Friday evening, May 4, in the high school gym. The plot concerns the finding of a treasure hidden by pirates many centuries before. The whole scene is brought about by the fact that a house is put up for sale by a real estate agent who wants to put pep and enthusiasm into the deal, and so drops hints of hidden treasure. The owner of the house is not aware of the treasure, but two sets of crooks do know about it and their efforts to outwit each other and their concerted efforts to outwit the owner of the house create much amusement. Miss Margaret Turner is director.

The cast of characters follows: Lush, Dan Kelly; Ambrose, Faye Stewart; Anna Valeska, Ruth Risue; Poppy Fraire, Unavee Whitsett; Agatha Whatcombe, Helen Hansen; Ivan Borlesky, Clarence Haller; Mr. Pengard, Leo Dugan; Mrs. Pengard, Fay Wooley; Johnny Jason, Tommy Sprankle; Den-net, Robert Kruse.

American Legion is Host.

The American Legion was host at a good will free entertainment Friday evening at the armory. Features on the program included a xylophone duet by Willard and Florence Spies; imitations of Seth Parker by Loren Harvey, who was assisted by Miss Helen Ostrander and the Cottage Grove quartet; violin duet by Tucker and Long; vocal numbers by high school girls' sextet; vocal duet by Wilma Sprouts and Zelma Lafoon; an address by S. S. George, past department commander of the American Legion.

Leston Durham Is Injured.

Leston Durham, employee of J. H. Chambers & Son, is carrying an arm in a sling as the result of being struck by a flying piece of wire cable which imbedded itself in the flesh. Mr. Durham was cutting a cable with an ax at the time of the accident. Physicians wished not to remove the particle until it was determined whether infection was going to develop.

Longview, Wash., has the fourth largest community church in America.
