Stephen Home Destroyed.

The house occupied by George T. Stephens at Latham was destroyed by fire late Wednesday afternoon and most of the household effects were lost. A garage on the adjoining property, occupied by Walter Huff, was also damaged and the house slightly damaged.

It was thought that sawdust from the Woodard mill had collected on the porch roof and that during the high wind of Wednesday sparks from the burner nearby set it afire. The Stephens family moved that evening to the home of Robert St. Elmo and the Huff family are now occupying the Daugherty Lumber company house in that neighborhood.

Services Held at CCC Camp.

Rev. James A. Smith, pastor of the Presbyterian church, conducted services Tuesday night at the Brice creek CCC camp. Due to a piano not being available a program planned was not given. The boys enjoyed group singing after Rev. Smith's talk. Services of a like nature will be held every Tuesday night at the camp.

Vesper Services Start.

Vesper services will start at 5 Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church to replace the evening services during the fall and winter months. The sermon topic is "Christianity and Citizenship." A women's chorus will sing and special numbers will be given by a young women's quartet composed of the Misses Jean King, Jean Moore, Dorothy Siemann and Dorothy Gallo.

Temperance Meetings Announced.

Speakers in behalf of temperance and local option in Lane county will be at the various community churches Sunday. Mrs. N. E. Compton will speak at an 11 o'clock service at Dorena; J. G. WHEREAS, Monday, November 12, 1934, is being celebrated as Armistice Day, commemorating the close of the World War, and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Cottage Grove are celebrating said day in such manner as is fitting, and

WHEREAS, it is desired that all stores and places of business in Cottage Grove be closed on said day;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Victor Chambers, by the ward to oppose in me as mayor of said city of Cottage Grove, do hereby proclaim and declare that stores and places of business within the city of Cottage Grove be closed during all of said day in commemoration of the close of the World War.

Dated this 30th day of October, 1934.

VICTOR CHAMBERS, Mayor.

OVER COUNCIL SEATS

CITY ELECTION WARMS

George Matthews Mentioned as Sticker Candidate for Council Job.

What bid fair to be one of the quietest city elections in the history of Cottage Grove is due for a warming up before votes are cast, according to rumors which are trickling into The Sentinel office.

As the rumor goes, there will be a sticker candidate for councilman in the second ward, the sticker candidate is to be George Matthews, whose name is the only one on the ballot for the position. As the rumor further goes, the sticker candidate is to be George Matthews and is proposed by those who are friends of Mr. Heliwell, who is a well known official and have no word to say against him, but have reasons for wishing to make a change that will be announced before election day.

In the first ward there is a contest between Councilman E. R. Wiese and Charles Shanda that has been a long time in the making, and is possible that a treasurer may be named by a few votes.

There are no other contests, incumbents being the only candidates, and there is no candidate for treasurer. The name of Worth Harvey has been frequently mentioned as a write-in candidate, but so far no effort seems to have been made in his or any one else's behalf. It is possible that a treasurer may be named by a few votes.

Ladies Organize Club
To Boost Dunne

Republican women of Cottage Grove have organized a Joe E. Dunne for Governor club with the following officers: Mrs. Clara Burkholder, president; Mrs. Verna Lombard, vice president; Miss Belle Burkholder, secretary.

Many already have signed the membership roll and further members are being solicited.

Nearly 2000 Attend
Church Sunday

Attendance at churches of the city Sunday totaled 1846, a gain of 250 over the previous Sunday. This also was the largest attendance since the campaign was started the first of October. The campaign is sponsored by the ministerial association.

New Cashier Arrives.

I. H. Palmer arrived the first of the week from Corvallis to take over the duties of cashier at the Mountain States Power company.

Mr. Palmer took the place of Mrs. Mabel Dixon, cashier for a number of years, who resigned on account of ill health. Mr. Palmer and family are occupying the C. F. Hoskins house at the corner of M street and Ash avenue.

Football Games Announced.

The high school has announced its only remaining home football games, one on November 12 with Springfield, which will be part of the Armistice day celebration, and one on November 16, with Lebanon as the opposing team.

Chief Lawson Slated For Retirement

Portland, Oct. 27.—Mayor Joseph Carson tonight announced the appointment of Captain Harry M. Niles as chief of the Portland Police force to succeed Colonel B. K. Lawson, who will retire December 1.

Chief Lawson, whose dismissal has been rumored for some time, has been under terrific fire since the summer waterfront strike. Chief Lawson has vigorously denied any knowledge of any "pay-off" rumored in connection with continued operation of Chinese lottery and gambling dens.

Pre-Christmas Campaign Starts.

A pre-Christmas campaign, "White Gifts from the King and White Gifts for the King," will start Sunday at the Presbyterian church. The slogan of the campaign is "God's House Must Be Beautiful," and all members of the church will share in collecting money for necessary improvements to the church. The pastor will deliver special sermons each Sunday and children of the Sunday school have been given miniature banks for their small contributions. The campaign will close December 23 when a service for the great ingathering of gifts such as self, service and substance will be held. The choir is preparing a concert of sacred music for that day.

Mrs. Compton Attends Meet.
