High School Notes

Football awards and the junior play were announced at an assembly last Thursday afternoon. Those receiving football letters were Verne Thoreson, Tom Kem, Herschel Tracy, Mike McKibben, Ellis Decker, Howard Arnest, Alfred Allen, Floyd Thies, Alora Cook, Marvin Wilson, Erwin Joll, Byron Thies, Jack Caton, Jack Kelly, Elmer Mason, Kenneth Shortridge and Joe Linden. Alfred Allen received the Twin Oaks trophy and Verne Thoreson the Lettermen's award.

The junior class presented a skit to advertise the junior play, "Three Live Ghosts," given the following evening. The first scene depicted a courtroom with Dr. Hagen, the junior class dad, presiding. A charge of kidnapping was placed against Elmer Mason, a member of the play cast. To learn the outcome of the trial it was necessary to attend the junior play. Several members of the faculty and student body participated in this skit and a few scenes from the play were presented.

This year's high debating squad was chosen December 11 as follows: Ed Bauder, Millard McFarland, Jean Moore, Lita Mosby, Kathleen Daugherty, Margaret Wilson. For the tryout all those interested gave a short negative or affirmative speech on the question: "Resolved, that the several states should adopt the 30-hour working week." Judges were Miss Myrtle Kem, Miss Margaret Turner and Superintendent H. B. Ferrin.

A moving picture, "A Rhapsody in Steel," sponsored by the Ford Motor company, was given at the high school auditorium Thursday afternoon. Some pictures of the world's fair at Chicago were also shown.

The Girls' league will sponsor a Christmas assembly Friday afternoon, admission to which will be fruit or vegetables to be used in making up Christmas baskets for the needy.
