Auto Mechanic Injured.
Clarence Nelson, 45, a mechanic at the Woodson garage, was severely injured at 9 o'clock this morning when a car slipped off a hoist and struck him. He was taken to a Eugene hospital, but the extent of his injuries could not be at once determined. It was feared that he may have been injured internally.

There was no explanation of the cause of the accident except that the car could not have been evenly balanced on the hoist.

Carrol Brees, who is stationed on the U. S. S. Altarra at San Diego, arrived Thursday to spend three weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Brees.
