COTTAGE GROVE WINS DEBATES PAST WEEK

(Written by Journalism Student.)

The Cottage Grove debate teams defeated Springfield teams both at Springfield and Cottage Grove in a dual contest held Friday. Dr. John Casteel of the U. of O. department of speech was critic judge for both debates.

Cottage Grove took the affirmative in Springfield at 10:30 and the negative at 2:30 in Cottage Grove. The question was: Resolved, that the federal government should adopt the policy of equalizing educational opportunities in the several states by means of annual grants for public elementary and secondary schools.

The victorious teams consisted of Lita Mosby and Ed Bauder, affirmative; Peg Wilson and Millard McFarland, negative.

These debates were the first of a series of ten.

The affirmative team won again last night in a contest with University high and will meet Roseburg here today. The negative team meets University high negative here today.

The negative team will meet University high here today and tomorrow will journey to Roseburg and Myrtle Creek.

Former Banker Here Dies.

John W. Donohue, who was in the banking business here briefly about 30 years ago, died February 9 in San Diego, where he had been a resident 24 years and where he was vice president of the Security Trust and Savings bank and director of the San Diego Building and Loan association. He was aged 73.

Mr. Donohue operated a bank here a few months, decided the field was not large enough and liquidated.

Grand Condustrass Is Coming.

Mrs. Myrtle Petersen of Ontario, grand conductress of the Eastern Star, will make her official visit to the local chapter Friday evening. A 6:30 banquet for officers will be given at the Bartell hotel at which Mrs. Petersen will be honor guest.
