and Maryjane Smith assisted in taking the quilts from the old chest. A ladies' quartet, Mrs. Victor Chambers, Mrs. Roy Short, Mrs. George Matthews and Mrs. C. C. Cruson, sang old time songs, accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Rice. Following the program refreshments were served in the church parlors with the aid members acting as hostesses. Mrs. B. R. Job was general chairman.

Social Twelve Club Entertained.—Mrs. James A. Smith entertained the Social Twelve club with a 1:30 dessert luncheon at her home Thursday of last week. Easter decorations were used on the luncheon table and the centerpiece contained clever verses which were read by the guests. Mrs. Nannie Smith will entertain the group in two weeks.

Research Club Elects.—The following were elected Tuesday evening at a meeting of the Research club at the home of Mrs. A. W. Shofstall: Mrs. Donnell Allen, president; Mrs. Stella Baker, vice president; Mrs. Benton Schrenk, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. M. C. Hickenbottom was program leader and the lesson was "Unrest of Women." The club will meet next with Mrs. Stella Baker.

Utopia Club Meets.—Mrs. Glennie Frost entertained the Utopia club with a 1:30 dessert luncheon today (Thursday). The table was attractively decorated with yellow in keeping with the Easter season and rooms were decorated with quince blossoms. The afternoon was spent socially. Mrs. James P. Graham was a guest. The club will meet next with Mrs. Elbert Bede.

Mrs. Cooper Is Honored.—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey entertained Monday evening honoring their houseguest, Mrs. Leslie Cooper of Mills City, who left Wednesday to visit friends in Eugene. The evening was spent with an Easter contest and playing rook and wild current were attractive decorations. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

La Comus Club Is Entertained.—Mrs. Warren McFarland entertained the La Comus club with a 1:30 bridge dessert luncheon Tuesday at the Colonial. Deuronicums and daffodils were attractive decorations. Mrs. Rex Wheeler held high score for guests and Mrs. A. W. Kime high for members. Guests were Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Warren Edwards and Mrs. Glennie Frost.

Entertain at Bridge.—Mrs. C. J. Kem and Mrs. F. L. Grannis entertained with a 7:30 dessert and three tables of bridge Saturday evening at the Kem home. Mrs. William Thum held high score and Mrs. Kenneth Goff low. Spirea, quince blossoms and deuronicums were attractive table and room decorations.

Legion Auxiliary Meets.—Plans were made Monday evening at a meeting of the American Legion auxiliary to sponsor a refreshment booth at the "Bohemia Days" celebration. It was announced that the Willamette council would meet Friday evening in Toledo. Garments were given out for welfare work.

Ad Libitum Club Meets.—Mrs. B. R. Reed entertained the Ad Libitum club Thursday afternoon of last week. The time was spent socially and a luncheon was served at the tea hour. Easter decorations prevailed. The club will meet next Thursday with Mrs. Albert Woodward for a 1:30 dessert luncheon.

W. C. T. U. Meets.—Mrs. Eva Aubrey entertained the W. C. T. U. Friday afternoon. Mrs. C. L. Madden led devotions and Mrs. W. V. McGee was program leader. Plans were made for a scientific temperance oratorical contest to be held soon in the high school and grade schools.

Elmarte Club Is Entertained.—Mrs. H. C. Wells entertained the Elmarte club with a 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday. Peach blossoms were decorations and Mrs. Merville Vench held high score. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. N. J. Nelson.

Do You Want More Miles Per Gallon?

Here Is What We Did for Opal Wagner

Opal Wagner was making 10 miles on a gallon of gasoline with her 1930 Chrysler 75 sedan.

She brought it to the Nelson Motor company for a free check-up with the new motor visualizer.

After we had made a few adjustments we put her car through a road test and found that it made 16 miles to the gallon! Six miles more than before!

Come in for your free check-up with the motor visualizer. It will show accurately how those extra miles can be added to your car!
