SOCIETY

Dove-Ostrander — Miss Helen Ostrander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ostrander of this city, became the bride of Eugene Dove, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Dove of Rainier at a pretty wedding Sunday afternoon in the Christian church. The ceremony was performed before a background of altar palms and roses and lighted tapers. The ring service was conducted by Rev. I. G. Shaw of the Springfield Christian church. Miss Harriet Ostrander, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and little Mary Ann Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall, was flower girl. Earl Dove of Rainier, brother of the groom, was best man. Preceding the ceremony Miss Esther Wicks played a violin solo. "Spring," the Balladeers sang "I Love You Truly" and Mrs. Edna Pearson of Eugene sang "At Dawning." Mrs. Cecil Caldwell was accompanist and also played Lohengrin's wedding march. The bride wore an ivory satin princess gown with long sleeves and a train and wore a veil of real lace held with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Tallamas roses, forget-me-nots and lilies of the valley. Miss Harriet Ostrander wore a long dress of pastel blue organza and a wide brimmed pink hat and carried a bouquet of pink sweetpeas. Little Mary Ann Hall wore a dress of pink organza and carried a basket of rosebuds. A reception was held at the Ostrander home following the wedding. Mrs. Fred Bartels, Mrs. Charles Hall, Mrs. George McQueen and Mrs. Katie Burrows served at the table, being assisted by the Misses Bernadine Schneider, Myrtle Snauer, Millicent Burrows, Thelma Wilkinson, Marie Nelson and Gertrude Cochran and Mrs. Elmer Neet and Mrs. Jerry Wilkinson. The couple left immediately after the reception for a honeymoon trip in California. They will make their home here, where Mr. Dove is a school teacher. A number of out-of-city guests were present.

American Legion and Auxiliary Meet — The American Legion entertained the auxiliary with a dance Monday evening following business meetings. The auxiliary held initiation for two members and nominated the following officers: Mrs. B. R. Reed, president; Mrs. P. S. Bukowski, first vice president; Mrs. Chet Vandenburg, second vice president; Mrs. William Haldeman, secretary; Mrs. W. H. Daugherty, treasurer; Mrs. E. T. Hov, historian; Mrs. Jack Maulding, sergeant at arms. Plans were made at the auxiliary meeting to serve breakfast to battery "E" Tuesday morning before they leave for encampment at Ft. Stevens and also to pack lunches for the boys to have on the train. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Tuesday Bridge Club Holds Picnic — Members of the Tuesday Bridge club entertained their families with a picnic supper Tuesday evening at the W. L. Workman home. Following supper bridge was played and Mrs. Thomas Holleran held high score. Guests were Mrs. Thomas Holleran of Jamestown, N. Y., who is visiting a daughter, Mrs. C. J. Kem, Miss Dorothy Grube of Punxsutawney, Pa., visitor at the Schofield Stewart home, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Grube of Pengra. The club will not meet again until September.

Miss Maxine Lemley Is Honored — Mrs. Jennie Hawley, Mrs. Wm. Ward and Mrs. E. E. Lemley entertained with a surprise shower honoring Miss Maxine Lemley Tuesday afternoon at the Lemley home. Miss Lemley is to be married soon to Kenneth Ward. The honor guest received a number of gifts and the afternoon was spent socially. The rooms were attractively decorated with roses, honeysuckle and mixed spring flowers and refreshments were served at the tea hour.

Altar Society Meets — Mrs. Mary LaCasse entertained the Altar society of the Catholic church Monday afternoon. Plans were made for a picnic to be held soon and refreshments were served at the tea hour. Mrs. LaCasse was assisted by a daughter, Miss Zelpha LaCasse. Mrs. Thomas Holleran of Jamestown, N. Y., houseguest at the home of a daughter, Mrs. C. G. Kem, was a guest.

Miss Dolly Pitcher Is Honored — Mrs. Roy Short, Mrs. Joe Smith and Miss Evelyn Veatch entertained with a surprise shower for Miss Dolly Pitcher Tuesday evening at the Short home. Miss Pitcher is to be married Sunday to George Butke of Eugene. The honor guest received a number of gifts and the evening was spent socially. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

O. L. H. Club Is Entertained — Mrs. T. C. Wheeler entertained the O. L. H. club with a 1:30 bridge dessert Tuesday. The table and rooms were attractive with mixed spring flowers. Mrs. W. W. McFarland held high score and Mrs. George Jacobsen won the traveling prize. Mrs. Rex Wheeler was a guest. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Glennie Frost.

Knit and Stitch Club Is Entertained — Miss Jeanette McKee entertained the Knit and Stitch club Tuesday evening. The time was spent sewing, knitting and socially and refreshments were served at a late hour. The club will meet Tuesday evening with Miss Beth Bede.

The Presbyterian missionary society will meet at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors.

Safety Valve Is Suggested — A reader who once resided in Canada has suggested a plan adopted there as a safety valve in times of stress. A regular weekly free public forum is held in a public meeting place and anyone wishing to speak is permitted to do so so long as his remarks are not seditious or libelous. It has been found there, this reader says, that many dangerous persons become less so when they can relieve themselves vocally.

Highway Crew Makes Repairs — A state highway crew has been here the past week making repairs to paving north and south of here and through the city. Camp has been established near the north highway brodge.

Eagles to Have Hall — The Eagles aerie is completing alterations to the upper story of the Hubbell building, corner Fifth and Main. It is to be used for lodge and social purposes by the aerie.
