HIGHEST VOTES TO BE GIVEN END SATURDAY

Miss Piper and Mrs. Shaffer
 Lead in Sentinel Contest
 Standing Today

The highest possible votes to be given at any time in The Sentinel's subscription campaign will end on next Saturday.

New leaders came to the front in the race for the two cash guarantees of $300 and $200 when Miriam Piper and Mrs. John Shaffer captured first and second places in the standing of workers published today.

No one has been able to establish a dangerous lead, first one and then another of the popular contenders has held first place. The contest is now reaching the stage when systematic, daily effort is necessary for those who would like to share in the cash guarantees awaiting those making the two best sales efforts.

The vote standing published below is comparative, and does not necessarily reveal the total votes earned by any worker.

Standing of Workers.

Miriam Piper	287,000
Mrs. John Shaffer	263,000
Louise Wynne	254,000
Lorraine Colner	230,000
Mrs. Ruby Benston	172,000
Irene Trunnell	130,000
Mrs. Lottie Mitchell	70,000
Phyllis Monson	51,000

Subscriptions count more this week than at any other time in the campaign. The special bonus vote offer of 200,000 extra votes with each $10 club is scheduled to end Saturday. Also the regular votes given on each subscription will be reduced from 20,000 to 15,000.

Those who have promised their subscriptions to one or another of the popular contestants are urged to give their subscriptions this week when the vote count is highest.

Subscribers and readers of The Sentinel are naturally interested in paying their subscriptions at a time when they will help one of their friends in the campaign. The first vote period ends on Saturday, and subscriptions received this week are worth more than at any other time in the campaign.
