LOCAL TOURNEY PLAY IS LIKED BY MEMBERS

Remarkable Low Score of 20 on 37 Par Course Turned in Sunday.

Home play between members of the Cottage Grove Golf club continues popular. Fifteen joined in an inch handicap tournament Sunday and the remarkable low score of a net 20 was made by Bob Savage with a 13 handicap on nine holes. Zimmerly was second with a 3 handicap and a net 27.

Play for the next Sunday or two will be qualifying rounds for the annual handicap tournament. The cup is now held by Bill Zimmerly.

Each player will turn in cards on at least 18 holes, and from these flights will be determined. There will also be prizes on best medal scores under present handicaps. All players have been requested to turn in cards on at least 36 holes during the next two weeks for determination of handicaps.

Playing on the ladder for team positions will continue and may be a part of Sunday's play.

Players and scores Sunday were as follows:

	Gross	Hdp.	Net
Savage	33	13	20
Zimmerly Sr.	30	3	27
Godard	38	10	28
Zimmerly Jr.	37	9	28
Crabb	33	5	28
Coiler	38	10	28
Lemley Sr.	34	5	29
Kelly	42	12	30
Lemley Jr.	38	6	32
Swartz	38	6	32
Wells	39	5	34
Stowell	44	9	35
Graber	45	10	35
Bede	44	8	36
Wilson	49	10	39

Jack Kelly is about the happiest golfer in Oregon this week. He garnered a 2 on No. 5 the other day, probably the only time an eagle has been made on the hole.

Mrs. W. A. Ball scored low gross in women's play Wednesday.

The women have started an electric tournament which is to run a month.

NO MONEY AUCTION IS TO BE LAST FOR YEAR

On account of the approach of the rainy season, which would make it problematical whether there would be pleasant weather on a day set for an auction, the No Money Auction to be held Saturday will be the last for this year, unless there should be an unusual demand from patrons of local stores and the local stores themselves when a chance would be taken on holding one in September.

Only Adults to Bid on Certain Items.

Bidding on certain items will be limited to adults, while there will be items upon which youngsters may bid.

Also there will be items reserved for those who have small amounts of the Bucks with which purchases may be made.

Those wishing to bid have been requested to be on hand promptly at 7, so that the sale may be completed before dark.

There will be a speaking program following dinner.

1935 COTTAGE GROVE PICNIC DATE IS AUG. 25

Dinner will be served at 1 o'clock. Coffee and ice cream will be furnished.

There will be a speaking program following dinner.

Mrs. Lora Finnerty Dies.

Funeral services were held Tuesday for Mrs. Lora Finnerty, 77, who died unexpectedly Sunday forenoon at her home on Jefferson avenue. She was presumably recovering from a recent illness and was playing with grandchildren when death came from heart trouble.

Mrs. Finnerty was born in Grand Park, Ill., February 26, 1858. She was married to William B. Finnerty in September, 1873, the couple coming here 45 years ago.

She was a charter member of the Christian church here and the late pastor of the church, Rev. I. G. Shaw of Springfield, officiated at the funeral. She was also a member of the D. A. R. and Women's Relief corps.

Surviving relatives are: A daughter, Mrs. Katie Burrows, and a son, G. E. Finnerty, both of this city; five grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; three brothers, George and Irwin Dickey of California and Otis Dickey, this city; two sisters, Mrs. Julia Childress, Lowell, Ind., and Mrs. Lucinda Dodge of Michigan.

Deceased children are Charles Erwin Finnerty, Julia May Ostrander and Menzo Merevin Finnerty.

Mrs. Blanche Cleland, Camas, Wash., a daughter-in-law, and Mrs.

ber of the D. A. R. and Women's Relief corps.
