

SOCIETY

Dr. A. W. Kime Is Honored.—Mrs. C. H. Kime and Mrs. J. E. Arnold entertained with a dinner at the C. H. Kime home Tuesday evening honoring Dr. A. W. Kime on his seventy-seventh anniversary.

Mueller-Wheeler.—Miss June Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Wheeler of this city, will become the bride of Roy M. Mueller of Portland at a 3 o'clock garden wedding Sunday afternoon at the home of Miss Wheeler's parents.

Methodist Ladies' Aid Meets.—Mrs. Ed Conner, Mrs. Charles Cooley and Mrs. E. E. Cone entertained the Methodist ladies' aid society Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors.

Juvenile Degree of Honor Holds Picnic.—Juveniles of the Degree of Honor held an all-day picnic Monday at the old orchard.

There will be no meeting of the American Legion auxiliary Monday on account of that being Labor day.

Following Degree of Honor meeting Monday the evening was spent playing cards.

The Constellation club will resume meetings Thursday of next week.

YOUR CHILD NEEDS MILK

Growing children need the nourishing, body-building foods and minerals which are abundant in milk.

Be sure that the milk they drink is the best.

Use Pasteurized Grade A Milk Get Dairy Products J. S. Powell Dairy Phone 186-R 505 Fifth and have no fear for bearings or motor—even when you run out of oil.

Use Pyroil

Bosley Serv. Stat. North Ninth St.

Nice Oak Kegs Fairbanks Engine New-Used-Furniture Short's Barg. Store

Young Man to Take Up Electric Refrigeration

and Air Conditioning. Prefer man now employed and mechanically inclined with fair education and willing to train spare time at home to become expert in installation and service work.

Utilities Engineering Institute Box 551, Beverly Hills, Calif.

M. C. Hickenbottoms Are Honored.—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dove entertained with a dinner Saturday evening and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lynch entertained with a dinner Sunday honoring the M. C. Hickenbottom family.

Mrs. Stella Baker Is Honored.—A group of friends entertained Monday evening at Howe's confectionery honoring Mrs. Stella Baker on a birthday anniversary.

The Mothers' club will hold an all-day meeting Tuesday in the club rooms. Dinner will be served at noon.

Mrs. William MacGibbon will entertain the M. P. G. club with a 1:30 dessert luncheon Tuesday.

And No One Put a Veto on That!

I remember the dawn of that cold, rainy day. Our first time over the top. How for hours we crouched in the mud of the trench.

I remember a night in a thick marshy wood. When the Boche gave a chlorine gas ball. We couldn't fight back, we were held in reserve.

I remember the nights when with pick and spade we scooped shallow graves for our dead. No songs could be sung—there were snipers around.

THORNTON CORNERS.

Aug. 27.—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Premazzi, Joanne Premazzi and Mrs. Mary Smith spent Wed. with the Frank LaBlue family at Hebron.

Fred Thornton and three sons; his mother, Mrs. Allie Thornton, and an aunt, Mrs. Grace Lewis of Stewart, Nev., were dinner guests one day last week of Fred Thornton's aunt, Mrs. James Plaster.

R. C. McNew was taken to a hospital in Eugene again last week. He is seriously ill with kidney poisoning.

Mrs. R. B. Dixon and daughter Doris spent Thurs. in C.G. with Mrs. John Bauder.

Alla Rae Horsley of C.G. visited one afternoon last week with Mary Trent.

Phyllis Baldwin of Gowdville was an all-day guest Thur. of a cousin, Joyce Baldwin.

Mrs. George Foster spent Fri. at Blue Mountain with a sister, Mrs. Bert Lancaster.

Mrs. Mary William of Culp Creek is a guest this week at the home of a son, John William.

Mrs. General Johnson of C.G. visited Fri. with Mrs. C. R. Trent and accompanied Mrs. Trent to the home of Mrs. Byrnes at Walden.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dixon, Doris Dixon, Mrs. Wilbur Black and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lake attended the Lutheran mission festival Sun. at Latham.

The Conrad Keene family of Creswell and the Howard Keene family of Delight valley visited over Sun. at the W. A. Keene home.

Mrs. Lyle Scott and children of C.G. and Addison Heath of Hebron were guests Tues. of Mrs. J. W. Fisher.

Mrs. C. R. Trent and Mrs. Mary Smith visited Mrs. Matilda Jones in C.G. one day last week.

Mrs. Lyman Adams and son Wallace of Latham visited Sun. at the S. P. Shortridge home and Mrs. Shortridge accompanied them to Bohemia in the afternoon.

Mrs. Ruby Dow and grandson, Nila Plaster of Garibaldi, are visiting Mrs. James Plaster.

Mrs. Fred Frost of C.G. was a caller Mon. at the J. W. Fisher home.

Punishment for Crimes. Crimes vary greatly in kind and penalty throughout the world.

Cottage Grove Picnic Is Held In Portland

The annual picnic of the Cottage Grove association in Portland was held Sunday at Peninsula park. Portland, Mrs. Christine McCormick, president, presided at the business meeting and Rev. M. A. Groves gave the blessing preceding a picnic dinner.

The afternoon was spent socially and with contests. Mrs. W. H. Powell was elected vice president to take the place of the late Sam Veatch. A number of guests were present from both Oregon and Washington.

Committees for next year were appointed as follows: Sports, R. W. Tapp, Hattie Van Scholack, Lillian Custer; coffee, Annie Beagle, Mr. Woodson; ice cream, Mrs. Frank Woodruff; publicity, Mrs. Hattie Best, Mrs. W. F. Hart.

COUNTY RELIEF OFFICE FORCE TO BE REDUCED

The WPA will take over relief in Lane county September 1 and will reduce the office staff from 23 to 13 persons. O. E. Crowe will remain as director and Martha Wyatt as head of social service.

There has been complaint that in arranging his list of those to remain Mr. Crowe did not leave enough democrats on the payroll. Mr. Crowe has said that he did not know the politics except of four of those retained, two republicans and two democrats.

SMALL PROPERTIES ARE ACTIVE IN BOHEMIA

Never in recent years have there been more signs of activity in the Bohemia district than this summer. In addition to the larger operations that have been mentioned in various issues of The Sentinel, one or two or a few men are on smaller properties, mostly for development work.

There is also renewed interest in placer prospects on a number of the smaller creeks.

Roads into the district are standing up under a heavy traffic of trucks and pleasure cars.

GAME LEAGUE IS NOW ROD AND GUN CLUB

The former South Lane Game Protective association is now the Cottage Grove Rod and Gun club, that name having been adopted at a meeting Monday night.

Through the efforts of the league 100 pheasants were recently released in this territory. More are expected and a large number of fish are yet to be planted this year.

Following the meeting Monday members enjoyed a light lunch at the Gray Goose, partially at the expense of Secretary Fox.

JEANS AND SCOTT PUT MILLS INTO OPERATION

Two mills have resumed operations during the past week. The W. S. Jeans mill on Table creek, which came near being destroyed by forest fire a few days after it had started its first operation, went into operation again this week.

The Scott Lumber company at Culp Creek resumed this week, after being down a short time.

FOUR-FOOT HAWK MISSES CHICKEN DINNER

A hawk with a four-foot wing spread was killed by Bill Allen of Silk creek a few days ago. The big bird was making a call at the Allen poultry yard. Allen saw the hawk coming and came out to meet him.

TOWNSEND MEETING IS POSTPONED WEEK

The Townsend meeting announced for next Sunday has been postponed a week, when a picnic dinner will be held in the city park, to be followed by a speaking program. The public generally has been invited.

Kem Store Is Repainted.

The front exterior of Kem's for Drugs is now resplendent in trimmings of blue and silver, applied during the past week, giving the building a novel and nifty effect.

Church News

Pentecostal Assembly of God, Atwood Pastor.—Sunday school, 9:45; forenoon service, 11; evening service, 7:30; young people's meetings, Wednesday, 7:45; Friday, 7:45; Bible study from book of Romans; Saturday, 7:30, street service.

First Baptist Church, Henry W. Davis, Minister.—Theme for 11 o'clock will be, "The History and Objectives of Trade Unionism;" Bible school at 10; midweek service, Thursday, 7:30.

Free Methodist Church, Rev. A. E. Sims, Pastor.—Sunday school, 9:45; forenoon service, 11; sermon subject, "Victorious Conflict;" evening service, 7:45; sermon subject, "Walking Right;" prayer meeting, Thursday night.

Christian Science Society, 242 south Second street.—Sunday school, 9:45; forenoon service, 11; sermon subject, "Christ Jesus."

Presbyterian Church, James A. Smith, Pastor.—Sunday school, 10; forenoon service, 11; sermon subject, "Jesus and the Industrial Situation;" a Labor day message; evening service, 8; union service at Christian church; prayer and bible study, Wednesday evening, 7:30.

Christian Church, Rev. C. C. Coulter, Pastor.—Sunday school, 9:45; forenoon service, 11; Rev. James Earl Ladd; Men's Community class meets at armory with Rev. Ladd as leader; evening service, 8; union service at Christian church, Rev. Ladd in charge; Christian Endeavor, 7; prayer meeting, Thursday evening.

Seventh-day Adventist Church, Paul Iverson, Pastor.—Services Saturday, Sabbath school, 9:30; preaching service, 11; Pastor Ross Dustin of Eugene will speak the first Saturday of each month; prayer meeting, 7:30, Thursday.

UMPQUA IS GETTING $2,500 MONTHLY

Federal funds to the amount of approximately $2,500 are being distributed in Lane and Douglas counties monthly through SEIRA work in the Umpqua forest. This money comes from $32,400 allotted to the forest from the president's public works bill.

Wages being paid are $44 for common labor, $50 for semi-skilled labor, $63 for skilled labor and $69 for professional services. Maximum hours for a month are 130. Ninety per cent of the men must come from relief rolls.

Lutherans Hold Rally.

Members and friends of the Lutheran church met Sunday for a mission rally at Mrs. Fahrenwald's grove. Rev. W. F. Georg, superintendent of Lutheran missions, was the speaker.

Members from St. Paul's Lutheran church, Roseburg, and Grace Lutheran church, Eugene, were present.

At noon the women served a cafeteria luncheon.

In the afternoon a short song service was conducted, during the course of which Rev. Georg gave an informal talk on the church's mission established among the settlers on the government project near Anchorage, Alaska, which he recently visited.

Teeters Creek Fire Controlled.

The fire north of Star on Teeters creek, which had been brought under control a week before, broke out again during the past week and gave trouble for several days, but is again under control. Only a small acreage was covered this time.

City Home Is Sold.

The C. P. Waples residence and lots on west Main street were sold this week to Peter C. Peterson of Dallas, who will take possession September 10. The deal was handled by Hall & Johnston. The Waples family will move into another home which they own on the west side of the city.

NEW FALL SUITS $20 $25 $30

Better Fit—Better Values Eric Merrell CLOTHES for MEN and Young Men Over Ten

FREE! Chevrolet De Luxe 4-Door Sedan

Win one of these with a slogan for the Rexall Drug Store. Get free entry blank at the Rexall Drug Store. All entries must be in Boston office by September 9.

Come in Now!

Our Factory-to-you sale ends this week. The Chevrolet (you have a chance to win it) will be on display Saturday.

KEM'S for DRUGS The Rexall Store

Announcement!

The Fall Term at the Eugene Business College located in the Miner Building, begins Tuesday, September Third.

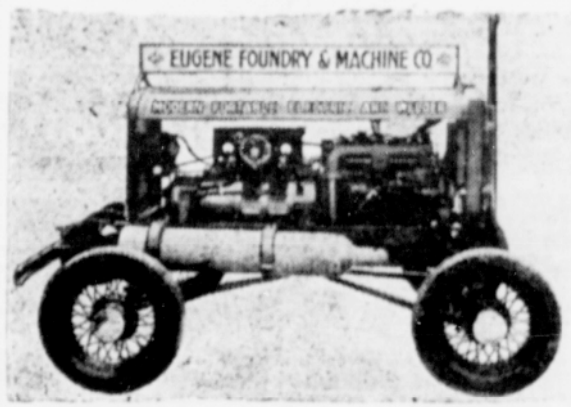

There will be Beginning and Advanced classes in Shorthand, Bookkeeping, Typing, Business English, Business Spelling, etc.

You will make no mistake when you take our business training course. Ask about it.

Eugene Business College "A Good School"

A. E. Roberts, President Miner Building Eugene, Ore. Phone 666

MACHINERY USERS!

Our New Hobart Portable Electric Arc Welder for away-from-the-shop jobs and Boiler Repairing Better Welds! Quicker Time! State Approved Welders

COMPLETE MACHINE SHOP BOILER REPAIRING—FOUNDRY Eugene Foundry & Machine Co. Phone 1054 Lane County Pioneer Shop 518 E. 8th Ave.

FARMERS UNION Free Delivery Phone 3

- Holly Cleanser 4 cans 19c
Holly Sal Soda—High Test Per package 10c
Holly Lye—High Test 3 for 23c
R & W Corn Flakes 3 for 20c
Long Bar 8-oz. Toilet Soap All for 5c
Kitchen Queen Flour Hard Wheat $1.63