June Wheeler Is Bride At Elaborate Wedding

In an elaborate home wedding at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Mary June Wheeler, of this city, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Wheeler, became the bride of Roy Morgan Mueller, Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Mueller, Portland.

The spacious rear lawn of the Wheeler home, enclosed in temporary greenery, was the scene of the double ring ceremony performed by Rev. J. A. Smith of the Presbyterian church. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Genevieve Kleebe of Portland sang "I Love You Truly" and Mrs. Victor Chambers sang "Because," both being accompanied by Mrs. Helen Rice.

The wedding party marched from the home over a green aisle carpet and between rows of miniature tree pyramids of asters to the southwest corner of the lawn, being met there by the groom and his attendant, Gordon Fogg of Portland. Mrs. Rice played Mendelssohn's Wedding March, also Lohengrin's Wedding March for the recessional.

The bridal party consisted of the ushers, maid of honor, bridesmaids and the bride upon the arm of her father.

The bride, gowned in full length ivory brocade, carried a bouquet of Rapture roses, lilies of the valley and orchids.

The maid of honor, Miss Ardeth Sneed of Marshfield, was gowned in yellow silk moire, wore a floral coronet and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Carolyn Grannis, Miss Jean Allison, Miss Peggy Lehrbach (Roseburg) and Miss Norvalie Hopp (Portland) wore frocks of silk moire, wore floral bandeaux and carried floral fans of pastel shades of asters.

The mother of the bride wore printed peu de soie and the mother of the groom wore bergundie lace threaded with gold.

The ushers were Norm Worthley, George Hall, Dan Mitola and Edwin Bellfield, all of Portland.

At the reception which followed Mrs. C. F. Hoskins and Mrs. O. L. Nichols cut the cake and Mrs. Elbert Bede, Mrs. Schofield Stewart and Mrs. H. W. Lombard cut the ices. Those who served were Mrs. Ralph Saltzman, Mrs. Kenneth Goff, Miss Eunice VanDenBerg, Miss Betty Jacobsen, Miss Bernadine Wiese, Miss Jean King, Mrs. Bonita Skilling and Miss Margaret Petersen.

The bridal party was seated at the bride's table and other guests at smaller tables scattered over the lawn. Floral decorations at the bride's table were white bouvardi and white aster pyramids. Each of the other tables was centered with an aster pyramid.

The wedding cake was in four tiers, was decorated with lilies of the valley and centered with a miniature wedding bell under which stood a miniature bride and groom.

The couple left at once for a honeymoon coast trip.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Oregon State college and the bride is a junior. The romance started while they were students.

There were numerous out-of-city guests, including Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Mueller and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Morgan, Portland, parents and grandparents of the bridegroom, and O. A. Wheeler, Portland, uncle of the bride, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Bollen were guests from Corvallis. There were many guests from the city.

Engagement Announced.—Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Kyro of Washington have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ethel Kyro of Portland, to Howard Jacobsen of Klamath Falls, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobsen of this city. The wedding will be held October 5 at the Presbyterian church in Portland.

Mrs. Addie Jacobs Is Honored.—Mrs. E. R. Lemley entertained Tuesday afternoon honoring her mother, Mrs. Addie Jacobs, on a birthday anniversary. The time was spent socially and the honor guest received a number of gifts. Refreshments were served at the tea hour and a birthday cake was a feature.

M. P. G. Celebrates Birthday.—Mrs. William MacGibbon entertained the M. P. G. club with a 1:30 dessert luncheon Tuesday. A birthday cake was a feature in honor of the club's twenty-second anniversary. Officers were elected as follows: Mrs. W. E. Lebow, president; Mrs. William MacGibbon, secretary. The afternoon was spent socially. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Roy Short.

Stars Visit North Bend.—Several members of the Eastern Star attended the annual Natal day celebration of Eastern Star Friday at North Bend. They were Mrs. Vinal Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith, Mrs. K. K. Mills and Mrs. C. S. Roberts. The group stayed overnight Thursday in Coquille with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stewart, former Cottage Grove residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Tedford Are Honored.—Mrs. A. W. Siemann entertained with a buffet picnic supper Wednesday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Tedford, newlyweds. Following supper the evening was spent socially and playing cards. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. James Tedford.

Lowell Tedford and Gladys Siemann of this city were married in Portland August 29, Rev. M. A. Groves of the Beech Street Methodist church, officiating. Rev. Groves was until recently pastor here. The couple spent several days along the coast, returning here to make their home.

Mrs. S. E. McFarland Is Surprised.—Mrs. Rosa Currin and Mrs. Fannie Manes entertained with a surprise dinner Labor day for Mrs. S. E. McFarland, who is unable to do all her own work because of an injured arm. The afternoon was spent socially.

The ladies' aid of the Presbyterian church will meet at 2:30 next Wednesday in the church for their first fall meeting. Hostesses will be Mrs. S. L. Godard, Mrs. Ralph Ward, Mrs. John Groves and Mrs. Rosa Currin.

B. L. Kieren of Portland recently came here to manage the Gray Goose cafe. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Fox, former managers, have purchased a ranch near Drain and have gone there to make their home.

The Christian Endeavor will be sponsors for an ice cream social to be held on the lawn of the parsonage tonight following services in the church. Receipts will go for purchase of new song books.

The Royal Neighbors will hold a social evening for their families and invited guests following their meeting next Tuesday.

Mrs. James P. Graham will entertain the O. L. H. club with a 1:30 bridge dessert luncheon Tuesday.

Election of officers will be held at the meeting of Rainbow Girls Monday.

Ad Is Answered Before Paper Is Received

"Take out that wanted. It was answered before I had received my paper," was the instruction received this week by The Sentinel. Lawrence Brown of Delight valley had advertised a Jersey bull and a sale was concluded before Mr. Brown received his paper. He is on the end of the Disston route and many others get the paper before he does.
