High School News

In a public speaking contest held last week by the Ag boys of the upper and lower classes the following were chosen to speak at the finals for prizes totaling $7.50, donated by Worth Harvey of the First National bank: Advanced group, Harvey Kelly, Wilbur Hoopes, Charles Clark, Willis Lathrop, Milton Smith and Bob Kennedy; lower group, Dale Robinson, Philip Lake, Roy Trunnell and Marvill Geer.

Besides winning a cash prize here the winner will go to Roseburg to the district meet March 7.

The boys' and girls' glee clubs under the direction of F. K. Noordhoff presented an assembly program Friday. Twenty-eight boys and 96 girls took part. This was the first time in the history of the high school that there has been a mixed chorus in four parts.

Features of the program were "Sweet Evening Bells" and "A Movie Dream" by the sixth grade from the central building, and a solo, "My Laddie" by Kathleen Daugherty. The remaining program follows: "A Warrior's Bold" and "Bells of St. Mary's" by the boys' glee club; "Cobblestone Road" and "Waitin' In the Shadows" by the girls' glee club; "When the Banjo Plays" and "Sundown" by boys' and girls' glee clubs. Marie Hall was accompanist. Margaret Petersen, president of the girls' glee club, was in charge of the program.

At a girls' league assembly Thursday athletic awards were presented to Maryjane Smith, Jane Stowell and Ruth Stowell. Gayle Tennis resigned her office of yell leader. Tumbling stunts opened the program. The acrobats were: Helen Ross, Roetta Aubrey, Eleanor Teeters, Kathleen Moore and Margaret Sorenson. A short play, directed by Miss Elvira Jensen, "Right About Faces," was presented. Members of the cast were Miss Hughes, Peggy Hodges; Mrs. Goldstein, Florence Spies; Mrs. Cassidy, Jane Stowell; Nora Cassidy, Dorothy Gallo; Rachel Goldstein, Heene Trunnell; Gladys Ruth Stowell; Josephine, Jessie Grubb. The scene was the Bon Ton Beauty parlor. The amusing incidents kept up a gale of laughter—particularly the interpretations of Mrs. Goldstein by Florence Spies and of Mrs. Cassidy by Jane Stowell.

Cottage Grove debate team for the negative will go to Eugene Friday afternoon to meet the Eugene affirmative. This is the first of the series of inter-school debates. The negative debaters are: Ed Bauder, Eunice Edwards and Dan Trask. All of the debate squad is to attend. Superintendent H. B. Ferrin is directing debate.

The question for debate is: "Resolved: That the several states should enact legislation providing for a system of complete medical service available to all citizens at state expense."

Special lectures were given Monday by Dr. Messing of the Oregon Hygiene society to groups of high school boys and girls.

Mary Madden, Winona Powell, Izola Isham and Lita Mosby, former students, visited school Friday. Millard McFarland, Mary Madden and Margaret Wilson, members of last year's honor society, entertained the present honor society with a party at the home of Miss Florence Jenks Monday, Feb. 3. Justin Brown and Tom Cox were also guests.

Mildred Ward, junior, returned to school last Friday after several days' absence on account of illness. Ed Bauder and Harold Boslaugh, seniors, were in Portland over the week end.

Miss Loretta Mason spent the week end in Eugene, where she attended the University of Oregon play, "Street Scene."

Jack Miller, junior, and Catherine Perini, freshman, returned to school Monday after several days' absence on account of illness.

Pauline Bellamy, freshman, entered school Monday.

Dale McGarvin, freshman, withdrew from school Thursday.

Frances Caldwell, senior, withdrew from school Monday on account of the death of a grandmother.
