LETTER DEPARTMENT.

Dear Heart Throbs Editor: My husband goes out every Monday night. I am afraid it's some woman. What shall I do?

DISTRACTED.

Dear Distracted: Your husband does not go out every Monday night to chase a woman. It is because you are so cross after doing your washing. I suggest that you send your washing to the Collins Laundry to be done for three cents a pound. Kiss your husband when he comes home from work Monday and all will be well.
