Bachelor Club Meets.—The first working meeting of the London bachelor sewing club was held Saturday afternoon at the home of the leader, Jeanne Morton. At the business meeting it was voted to accept the name, Needle Pushers. Cutting paper patterns for carpenter aprons was demonstrated and the boys cut and started work on their aprons. One member became so adept on the sewing machine that he was able to complete his. Patterns were also cut for tool and emergency first aid kits and work started. Jacqueline Morton has been appointed assistant leader. Club members are: John Madison, president; Philip Haney, vice president; Bob Propst, secretary; Jean Ralston, Carlton Woodard, Charles Coffman, Lloyd Gilham, Forest Cox, Alvin Dugan, Clyde Clark, George Gaebels and Merwin Perini. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Morton Saturday afternoon.

Jolly Hikers Meet.—The Jolly Hikers' Camp Cookery club held a popcorn popping party Friday evening at the Fred Patton home at Hebron. Popcorn was collected from those who were unable to walk between two rows of popcorn, in which feat no one succeeded. A prize for cutting down an orange with scissors while blindfolded went to Eward Noble. Prizes for naming things found in the kitchen went to Eward Noble and Vernon Doolittle. First and second prizes for guessing nearest to the number of kernels in a jar of popcorn went to Eunice Edwards and Evelyn White. Other games were played. Following refreshments members put together a jigsaw puzzle, which was won by Eward Noble in a rubber throwing contest.

London Clubs Meet.—The London 4-H room improvement, canning and dinner clubs met for their regular business meeting at the London school Friday. Following the meeting test work on judging was practiced. For local achievement day the clubs are planning to hold a judging contest by all members on groups of 4-H work done during the year. Ribbons will be awarded to the best judges rather than on actual work on club units. This method is being advised by state leaders for local achievements. The next meeting will be at the school house April 3.
