The Social Whirl

Bloomquist - Sherman. — Miss Pauline Sherman, formerly of Cottage Grove and daughter of Mrs. Georgiana Sherman of Reedsport, became the bride of Andrew Bloomquist of Reedsport Wednesday evening, March 25, at the community church of Reedsport. The impressive ring ceremony was read by Rev. I. G. Shaw in the presence of 150 friends and relatives. Mrs. Frank Taylor and Mrs. E. B. Carey sang "At Dawning." Mrs. M. D. Wallace played the wedding march. The bride was attired in a powder blue, lace trimmed crepe dress and carried a bouquet of bride's rosebuds and sweetpeas. Her sister, Mrs. Roy Hands, who was matron of honor, was attired in a yellow crepe dress. Dan Wright was best man. After a reception Mr. and Mrs. Bloomquist accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hands to their home and next day left on a trip to California. After three weeks they will be at home in Reedsport at Hotel Welcome, of which the groom is proprietor. Mrs. Bloomquist is a graduate of the Cottage Grove high school and a sister of Mrs. Roy Hands of this community. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hands and son Donald, Claude Sherman and Miss Ada Sherman of Cottage Grove and Rev. and Mrs. I. G. Shaw of Springfield.

Newlyweds Are Honored. — A reception for Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Conner, newlyweds, was held Monday night at the home of Mr. Conner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Conner of Delight Valley. About 50 guests, including close friends and relatives of the honor guests, were present. At the close of the evening ice cream and cake were served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Hugh McCormack, mother of the bride.

La Comus Club Meets. — Mrs. W. W. McFarland was hostess Tuesday for the La Comus club. A 1:30 dessert was served and bridge occupied the afternoon hours. Mrs. O. E. Woodson held high score and Mrs. George Morgan, a guest, held low. The club will hold a annual meeting in two weeks at the McFarland home. A no-hostess 1 o'clock luncheon will be served.

Mrs. Bosley Entertains. — Mrs. Helen Bosley entertained Friday evening with a dinner and social evening in honor of her son Fred. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Tedford, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor, Ben Hubbell and Geo. Stephen. Table decorations were in keeping with Easter. Games were played and light refreshments served at a late hour.

Past Noble Grands Meet. — The Past Noble Grands club was entertained Thursday afternoon in I. O. O. F. hall at a business and social session with the following as hostesses: Mrs. Chas. Caldwell, Mrs. Chas. Conner, Mrs. Mira Counts and Mrs. J. M. Eastham. Decorations were in keeping with Easter and refreshments were served.

Elmarts Club Meets. — Mrs. Sam Veatch entertained the Elmarts club Tuesday with a 1:30 dessert. Bridge was played during the afternoon. Mrs. N. J. Nelson holding high score. Mrs. Charles Hall was elected secretary-treasurer to take the place of Mrs. Ethel Hagen, who resigned. The club will meet next with Mrs. Hall.

Half Century Here Observed. — In commemoration of her arrival here 50 years ago, Mrs. Kate Sears entertained a few friends at dinner Thursday last. Charles and Grant Bales, who arrived here with her, were guests. The three are relatives and arrived from Boulder, Colo., March 26, 1886.

P. D. G. Club Meets. — Mrs. N. E. Glass was hostess to the P. D. G. club Friday afternoon. Mrs. Schneider was in charge of a program in which planting flowers and shrubs were discussed. Mrs. C. A. Atkinson, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Beck were guests. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Hagan Is Honored. — Mrs. Ethel Hagen was honored Monday when the Tuesday bridge club, of which she has been a member, entertained with a no-hostess 1:30 dessert and an afternoon of contract. Mrs. Claude Kime held high score at cards. Mrs. Hagen was presented with a gift.

Ad Libitum Club Meets. — Mrs. Albert Woodard was hostess for the Ad Libitum club this afternoon (Thursday) at her home near London. A social afternoon was spent with needlework, after which dainty refreshments were served. Daffodils were attractive decorations for the rooms.

The Staff club of the Rebekah lodge entertained last Friday night honoring six new officers who will become members of the club. Drill practice was held followed by a social evening. Refreshments were served at the close.

Relief Corps Meets. — The Women's Relief corps met Saturday afternoon at the armory. Mrs. Eva Awbery, secretary, gave a report on the district meeting of two weeks ago. Twenty-five were present and from a dinner served at noon $25.07 was realized. The group will meet again April 11.

M. P. G. Club Meets. — Mrs. Armand Wynne was hostess Tuesday for the M. P. G. club. A 1:30 dessert was served and the afternoon spent with needlework. Jonquils and daffodils were colorful decorations about the rooms. The club will meet next with Mrs. K. K. Mills.

Silver Tea Announced. — The King's Heralds of the Methodist church will entertain Wednesday afternoon with a silver tea at the home of Mrs. N. E. Compton. A program will be presented. Proceeds will go toward the society's mite-box and thank offerings.

Research Club Meets. — The Research club met Tuesday night in the city library with the past presidents in charge. Mrs. L. Van Schoick reported on the book, "The Valiant Wife," by Margaret Wilson. Eunice VanDenBerg gave a flag code test.

Social Twelve Meets. — The Social Twelve club was entertained Thursday last by Mrs. H. B. Ferrin with a 1:30 dessert and social afternoon. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Herbert Eakin.

Miss Bernadine Schneider, Miss Glenda Ross and Mrs. Zenna Moughmer have issued invitations for an afternoon of bridge Wednesday at the Charles Stevens home.

The Constellation club met this afternoon (Thursday) in the Masonic club rooms. Mrs. George Jacobsen was chairman of the hostess committee.

The young people of the Baptist church held a party Monday evening, with their teacher, Mrs. Truman Clark, as a guest. Games were played and refreshments were served.

The Dinner club was entertained Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beidler. Mrs. C. S. Roberts held high score at bridge.

The I. O. O. F. lodge will be host tonight (Thursday) for the Oakridge lodge, who will bring a class of eight candidates.

The I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges have issued invitations for a social evening and dance Friday night at their hall.

Officers and teachers of the Baptist church will hold a covered dish dinner tonight, Thursday, in the church.

The Past Matrons' club will meet Monday in Masonic temple, with Miss Mariette Hamant as hostess.

Mrs. W. W. McFarland will entertain Joker club Friday evening at 7:30 with a dessert bridge.

The Presbyterian ladies' aid society will meet Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors.

Methodist Church Elects. — Officers for the Methodist church were elected at the fourth quarterly conference held Sunday afternoon. Dr. S. W. Hall, district superintendent, presided. Principal officers elected are:

Trustees, S. L. Mackin, J. D. Monroe, J. B. Markham, E. E. Cone, Andrew Gerrard, G. B. Arnest; stewards, C. L. Stroup, James Tedford, S. L. Mackin, C. E. Umphrey, Omer Moore, H. L. Cone, Alice Breedlove, Wm. Hogate, J. D. Monroe, J. B. Leonard, G. H. Fullerton, W. F. Allen, F. L. Grannis, Bayard Reed, Lowell Tedford, S. T. Rose, Evan Rand, Kenneth Goff, Dick Sturges, Geo. Stephen, Loren Harvey, Arthur Siemann, Pearl Saffley, Ethel Mackin, Dorothy Arnest.

A voluminous list of other officers were also named.

Gas Price May Drop. — Cottage Grove motorists may look for a drop of a cent a gallon April 6, when a reduced freight rate on gasoline ordered by the state public service commissioner will become effective. The reduction in freight amounts to a cent a gallon.

Territory affected lies between Goshen, in Lane county, and Gregory, Cal. Eugene will not be affected, which probably will make the retail price in Cottage Grove and Eugene identical, the Eugene price heretofore having been a cent lower.

Older Boys Report. — Boys who attended the recent older boys' conference at Salem, together with Rev. J. A. Smith, who accompanied them, made informal extemporaneous reports at the Presbyterian church Sunday night, these reports taking the place of the usual sermon.
