

School Notes

A formal initiation of the home economics club was held in a girls' league assembly Friday. The ceremony took place in the gymnasium. The initiates were: Frances Glasgow, Lucille Davis, Dorothy Giercau and Virginia Hunter. Officers of the club are: President, Beth Hall; vice president, Vivienne Abercrombie; treasurer, Joanne Scheufele; secretary, Helen Ross; historian, Ruby Allen; song leader, Louise Lukens. The program preceding initiation was: Solo, "Cling to Me," Ruby Allen, accompanied by Dorothy Siemann; reading, "An Old Maid's Prayer," Lois Baldwin; duet, "Home," Dorothy Gallo and Dorothy Siemann, accompanied by Kathleen Moore.

The honor society will have charge of a pay assembly May 7. The program will consist of a three-act drama, "April Showers," in which a single actor, Jack Rank, portrays the many different characters by means of making quick changes of costume.

Vivian White, Mildred Cellers, advanced typing students, and Irene Trunnell, Dorothy Gallo, beginning students, entered a typing contest in Corvallis Saturday. They were accompanied by their instructor, Miss Florence Jenks, and Miss Helen Funk. Results of the contest will be announced after receiving the report from O.S.C.

H. B. Ferrin attended an educational conference at the Oregon State normal school at Monmouth Saturday.

Miss Elvira Jensen spent the week end in Corvallis and Eugene.

Miss Marian Notvedt spent Saturday at the coast.

Don Hastings, Donald Sullivan, Frances Turner, Delbert Wertz and Lovelle Abeene have been absent several days because of illness.

Pete Beach, Ellis Dallaguardi, Irene Honnold and Marie Williams have returned to school after being absent several days on account of illness.

Proceeds of the lettergirls' candy sale Friday were 96 cents.

"Girl Shy," a three act comedy play written by Katharine Kavanaugh, is to be given May 22 by the senior class under the direction of Miss Loretta Mason. Kenneth Shortridge has the part of Tom Arsdale, who is girl shy; Bob Cherry is Oke Stinson, who isn't girl shy; Beth Hall is Caroline, Tom's aunt; Ed Bauder is Anthony Arsdale, Tom's father; Peggy Savage is Sylvia Webster, Tom's pet aversion; Dean Marlow, dean of the college; is Lenthal Carpenter; Peaches Carter, Oke's present weakness; is Joyce McCormack; Elizabeth Rhode takes the part of Asma, a colored "wash lady"; Florence Spies is Birdie Laverne, a movie aspirant; Charlotte Burkholder is Barbara Sanford (Boba), herself; Alfred Tennyson Muratoy, the college poet, is Jack Caton, and Chuck Mayo, Birdie's late affinity, is Wilbur Hoopes. Fern Tracy is prompter.

As the big May festival draws nearer, the excitement of who will reign grows greater. Friday the returns showed Maxine Wilson, first; Florence Spies, second; Jackie Morton, third, and Billie Smith, fourth. Monday the returns showed Florence Spies, first; Jackie Morton, second; Maxine Wilson, third, and Billie Smith, fourth. Don't forget to cast your vote for your choice of queen.

May 8 is the big day. The festival starts at 11 o'clock north of the high school building. Everyone is invited to bring his lunch at noon and participate in the races and ping-pong tournaments. Free coffee will be served.

The local F.F.A. will journey to Corvallis Thursday for a three-day convention at O. S. C. This annual convention is attended by delegates from all over the state.

Those entered and attending from Cottage Grove are: Dale Chapman, farm accounting and seed identification; Wilbur Hoopes, John Gallo and V. Guggisberg, horse judging; Leonard King and Melvin Tonole, farm accounting; Willis Lathrop, Milton Smith, demonstration rope work on the farm; Wayne Walker, budding and grafting; Charles Clark, Raymond McCullough, corn demonstration; Bob Kenady, visitor, and E. O. Berg, advisor.

Petitions for next year's student body officers were put in circulation Monday. All petitions must be signed and turned in at the office by Friday.

Ruth Stowell, Cecil Safley and Fern Tracy were additional members chosen Monday in an honor society meeting to attend the state honor society convention in Portland Saturday. Other members who will attend are Allan Ferrin, Mildred Cellers, Douglas Bracher, Ed Bauder and Kenneth Shortridge.

The girls' league voted Friday to have "print dress" week from May 4 to 8. All girls and members of the faculty will be required to wear print dresses.

WEST SIDE SCHOOL NOTES

A group of students were excused Friday to attend the annual state Christian Endeavor Convention held in Eugene.

The seventh grade has started studying the Oregon supplement in geography.

Miss Rose Hutton visited friends in Marion Saturday afternoon.

Miss Hutton was principal of schools there last year.

Shirley Burkholder is absent from school on account of the death of her mother, Mrs. Dana Burkholder.

Saturday, April 25, the following teachers attended an educational conference in Monmouth: Miss Halderman, Mr. Phelps, Mrs. Thum, Miss Wilkinson, Miss Hutton, Miss Ross, Miss Moughmer, Mr. Dove.

All students were required to make "poppy posters" for the contest conducted by the American Legion auxiliary. Eleven were selected for the final judging. The students whose posters were chosen are: Velma Bennett, Margaret Bressler, Paul Davenport, Myrel Glasgow, Lele Huff, Emanuel Kirchofer, Gladys Lemley, Margaret Monson, Sarajane Moore, Robert Tennis and Grace St. Elmo.

In the mechanics class four organized groups have been assigned some project to represent the class. Two of these groups are making radios. Another group interested in telegraphy is learning the Morse code and building senders and receivers. The fourth group is making crystal sets.

The 4-H clothing class is progressing very nicely and have handed in some excellent finished products.

At our assembly last Wednesday the students enjoyed "To Be or Not to Be Married" and "The Family Meets the Wife," two very clever plays presented by the Dramatic class under the direction of Mrs. Thum.

Stanley Daugherty's name has been added to the dental honor roll.

Miss Morrison was away Thursday and Friday to attend the funeral of her grandmother in eastern Oregon. Mrs. C. J. Hall substituted during her absence.

Report cards are to be given out Wednesday, April twenty-ninth.

The eighth grade social science class has been studying from two text books, a history by Grady and a civics book. They have now finished the history and are studying the civics book.

Paul Davenport of the eighth grade is a good prospect for a track star. He surprised several people by high jumping five feet one inch. Mr. Dove, boys physical ed. teacher, expects Paul to improve within this year.

All students purchasing a twenty-five cent ticket will be excused from school Wednesday in time to see the picture "A Midsummer Night's Dream," one of Shakespeare's famous plays.
