

Thousands Seek Data On Oregon

A travel development program via radio, arranged by the Oregon State Motor association, has flooded the secretary of state with more than 4500 requests for literature covering Oregon's recreational areas. Here are Harold B. Say, head of the highway commission's new travel and information department, and Earl Snell, secretary of state, inspecting some of the answers to the motor club's radio invitations over KNX in Los Angeles. Listeners were asked to write to the secretary of state, and the letters were turned over to the highway department for answering.

School Notes

The following seniors will take charge of the 16-page senior edition of the C. G. Newsette which is to be placed on sale June 1 at five cents the copy: Editor, Lillian Gregory; feature editor, Peggy Savage; advertising manager, Douglas Bracher; business manager, Howard Ernest; boys sports, Wayne Mackin; girls sports, Eunice Edwards; general news, Doris Absher; class news, Elizabeth Rohde; mimeographers, Ada Chestnut, Fern Tracy, Charlotte Burkholder; typists, Ruth Stowell, Vivian White.

"Oh! I'm better looking than I thought I was"—"Mine aren't any good"—"Why, I don't look like that"—"Oh! Look at Clark Gable"—Such were the ejaculations made by the seniors as they received the proofs of their graduation pictures last week. We'll soon be hearing from the sophomores, juniors and freshmen—to say nothing of the faculty—as they gaze upon their group pictures, which were taken Tuesday. The several pictures, together with one of the high school entrance and Mr. Currin, will go to make up the annual senior memory booklet.

The Cottage Grove boy scout drum corps, troop 18, composed mostly of high school students, led 1000 scouts in the grand entry at the Scout Circus held at McArthur court in Eugene Saturday evening. Raymond Carl of the high school music department organized and trained the corps within two weeks time and acted as drum major of the group.

Mr. Salee, scout executive for Wilamet council, was enthusiastic over the splendid appearance of the corps.

Ina Stuart, Frances Glasgow, Bethel St. Elmo and Eunice Edwards made a new record when they hiked around the Latham loop in one hour and 15 minutes Saturday morning.

Miss Marian Notvedt will honor the senior girls with a tea to be given at her home Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

The future cooks and housewives of the home economic class have been busily preparing delicious luncheons and dinners the past week.

The junior English classes have been burning the midnight oil lately writing their short stories.

Approximately 125 mothers attended the girl's league mother's tea held at Phillip's hall Saturday. The hall was attractively decorated with large baskets of iris and sweetrocket. The centerpiece of the table was pink and lavender sweetpeas with lavender candles. Girls, becomingly gowned in dresses of pastel shades, served while Mrs. Clyde Roberts and Mrs. C. A. Beidler poured the tea.

The senior class is editing a senior paper, the Senior C. G. Newsette, to be published June 2. The paper will contain regular news with a variety of senior news including the class will, songs, poems, roll call and features. Lillian Gregory is to be editor. The staff has not yet been chosen.

The Lions went to Corvallis Saturday, where they took part in the state track meet. They scored four points and tied for eleventh place among the 27 schools that scored points. There were 57 schools in the meet. Captain Mackin scored two points in the mile, getting fourth place after having the lead taken away from him in the last 100 yards. Caton won fourth in the 220 yard low hurdles. The relay team ran the 880 yards in 1:36.6 which is the fastest Cottage Grove has run it, but failed to place.

Allan Ferrin and Ted Scott went to Portland and entered the junior northwest track meet. Scott placed fourth in the 880 yard run and Ferrin placed fifth and sixth in the low and high hurdles respectively.

"Girl Shy," the senior class play, a three-act comedy, will be presented Friday evening in the high school gymnasium at 8 p. m.

The orchestra, under the direction of Raymond Carl, will play at intervals.

Committees to help with the play are as follows: Business manager, Dale Bennett, assisted by Norman Thoreson; properties, Genevieve Bressler, Margaret Short; wardrobe managers, Norma Soter and Margaret Petersen; ushering, Kathleen Daugherty, assisted by Lillian Gregory, Ada Chestnut, Evelyn Lynch, Elnora Shove and Doris Absher. Fern Tracy is prompter.

Student body officers for next year are: President, Harvey Kelly; vice president, Kathleen Moore; secretary, Dorothy Siemann; treasurer, Clifford Hiner; business manager, Lee Baldwin; editor, Evalyn Kirchofer. The results of the election held Friday were read in an assembly Friday afternoon.

The juniors are making plans for the junior-senior banquet to be served by the American Legion auxiliary in the armory May 29. The theme of the dinner will be "The Ship of Good Will." Committees appointed in a class meeting Wednesday of last week are: Invitations, Billie Smith, Illa Corby; programs, Lorene Perini, Norma Tucker, Evalyn Kirchofer, Lee Baldwin; decorations, Don Thiese, Jane Stowell, Hershel Tracy, Mildred Cellers, Kathleen Moore, Willis Beidler; seating, Allan Ferrin, Jessie Grubb, Phyllis Monson.

Thirty-eight grade graduates from outlying districts were invited by the honor society to visit school Monday and register for entrance next fall. A free lunch was served at noon by the home economics class. The honor society committee in charge was Ed Bauder, Jessie Grubb and Allan Ferrin.

"The Meeting Place," a one-act comedy was given by the dramatic class, under the direction of Miss Loretta Mason, Monday.

Mildred Cellers took the part of Mrs. Curtis, a young widow; Harold Boslaugh was Lancelot Briggs in love with Mrs. Curtis; Kathleen Daugherty was Jessie, Lancelot's sister; Georgetta Powell was Mrs. Briggs, his mother; Howard Ernest was Mr. Ingoldsbey; Lee Baldwin was Rupert Smith, and the Mysterious Voice was Dan Trask.

Eldon Walker, Bill Zimmerly and Eldon Grable have been absent from school several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Berg made a business trip to Salem, Hillsboro and Oregon City during the week end.

Dale Robinson, Vonda Powell and Delbert Wertz returned to school after being absent several days.

Miss Elvira Jensen spent the week end in Corvallis and at her home in Eugene.

Tremendous Trifles

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

U. S. BECOMES "UNCLE SAM"

EARLY in the Nineteenth century Ebenezer and Samuel Wilson were large landowners and meat packers near Troy, N. Y. Well-liked by everybody, they were known as "Uncle Eb" and "Uncle Sam."

Soon after the outbreak of the War of 1812 New York and New Jersey militia were camped near Albany. Albert Anderson, Jr., of New Jersey, was given the contract for supplying them with meat.

Anderson appointed Samuel Wilson as inspector of these supplies. On every barrel which he passed Wilson stamped the letters "U. S.—E. A.," signifying that it was supplied to the United States government by Albert Anderson.

One day a soldier asked an Irish employee of Wilson's the meaning of those letters. "Why, that means Albert Anderson and Uncle Sam," he replied. "Uncle Sam who?" his questioner persisted.

"Why, don't you know?" the Irishman said jokingly. "That means Uncle Sam Wilson. He's feeding the army."

This remark was taken up and repeated by the soldiers and in a short time the use of the term became widespread. An Irishman's witty reply to a soldier's question thrust unexpected fame upon Samuel Wilson and resulted in a personification which cartoonists made familiar throughout the world.

Hotel-on-Wheels Rexall Train on 29,000-Mile Trip

Designed primarily as a convention-place for the 10,000 Rexall druggists throughout the United States, the United Drug company's million dollar train will pass through Cottage Grove Thursday evening, May 28, about 9 p. m. and will stop in Eugene from 9:30 to 10:30 that night where the public is invited to inspect it. Free tickets of admission can be obtained from Kem's for Drugs, local Rexall store.

on an 8-month, 29,000-mile tour of the country, with a program of stops in 147 towns, in 109 of which conventions of druggists will be held.

The train is composed of 12 streamlined cars including four exhibit cars, two lecture cars, a cafeteria diner, two cars for dancing, an orchestra, and sleeping cars for the staff and crew of 50. It is air-conditioned throughout and will be hauled the entire trip by the huge 350-ton streamlined, oil-burning locomotive. The use of a single locomotive on so long a trip is unprecedented in railroading practice.
