

The Social Whirl

Melba Cochran Wed Sunday.
Melba Mae Cochran, daughter of Charles S. Cochran, and William Clifford Ross of Reno, Nev. were united in marriage at an impressive service Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Pentecostal Assembly of God. Rev. Atwood Foster officiated with the ring ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a wedding gown worn by her mother thirty years ago. It was cream colored imported China silk made floor length and trimmed in Valenciennes lace. Her veil which trailed the aisle was of embroidered net and held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds and white sweet peas. Miss Melba Cochran, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was gowned in powder blue crepe of floor length and carried a shower bouquet of mixed flowers with a wreath of pink and blue buds entwined in her hair. Genevieve Mulvihill and Marian Johnson, bridesmaids, wore frocks of pink and white figured material and carried bouquets of mixed flowers. They wore wreaths of tiny buds in blue and pink shades in their hair. Little Billy Louise Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Scott, was flower girl. She was dressed in blue organdy and carried a basket of pink rose petals. Mrs. Atwood Foster played Lohengrins Wedding March as the bridal party entered from the rear of the church. They were met at the altar by the groom and best man, Orval Warfel, Wendling; Roy Keyes of Sacramento, and Robert Kruse, ushers. As the group assembled at the pulpit Mrs. Eugene Dove sang "God Make Thee Mine," accompanied by Mrs. Foster. Preceding the ceremony the following program was presented: Piano selection, "Simple Aveu," Mrs. Dove; harp solo, "In the Cross," Roy Keyes; vocal selection, "Somehow," Mrs. Eva Alsop. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Cochran home for the bridal party and immediate relatives. Mrs. Ross was reared in Cottage Grove and was graduated from the high school in 1931. She and Mr. Ross are recent graduates of a Bible college in San Francisco where they trained for evangelistic service. After a short wedding trip they will return to California to await a call to Peru, South America, where they will work as missionaries.

Constance Hutchinson is Wed.
Miss Constance Hutchinson, niece of Mrs. George Mote of this city, was married Sunday afternoon to Virgil Kingsley, Eugene, at the Baptist church in Eugene. Rev. I. G. Shaw read the service. Miss Wilma Hamilton sang "I Love You Truly," preceding the ceremony. Robert Gould played the accompaniment and also the wedding march. The bride was becomingly gowned in white satin with train and veil of same length. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and Talisman roses. She was given in marriage by her brother, Edgar Hutchinson. Florence Davis was maid of honor and Grace Allen, Lois Kingsley and Ruth Weber were bridesmaids. Their frocks were of soft pastel shades. Donald Kingsley was best man for his brother and ushers were Kenneth Goff, Delbert Evans, Frank Bashor and Charles Teague. A reception followed at the home of the bride. After a trip to beach cities the young couple will reside in Eugene until fall when they will go to Lowell where Mr. Kingsley has a position as high school principal. Mrs. Kingsley is a former Cottage Grove girl and was graduated from the local high school with the class of '29. She has held a position in Eugene the last few years.
