

The Social Whirl

Mary Jane Caldwell is Wed.
 Mary Jane Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Caldwell, and Harry Skelton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Skelton of Lorane, were married Sunday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock in the beautiful garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Horn. Rev. E. E. Coulter read the service before a setting of shrubs with baskets of flowers added to the background. The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Louis Caldwell, wore a dress of white silk net over a foundation of white satin. Her veil was of net draped from a Juliette cap. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and deep shaded pink rosebuds. Miss Thelma Hodgson, maid of honor, wore green satin. Miss Claribel Caldwell, sister of the bride, and Miss Marjorie Skelton, sister of the groom, wore frocks of yellow satin and blue lace. Barbara Willoughby, niece of the bride, dressed in yellow organdy carrying a basket of rose petals, was flower girl. Harold C. Foster was best man. Preceding the ceremony, Barbara Willoughby and Evelyn Pentico, also a niece of the bride, escorted the parents of the bridal couple to their places on the lawn. Francis Horn sang "I Love You Truly." Miss Helen Olson played the wedding march. A reception followed. The bride cut her wedding cake. The Misses Eleanor White, Ruth Dusenberry, Ruth Olson and Evelyn Pentico served. More than eighty guests were present. Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Skelton left for a motor trip to coast points in Oregon and California. The bride wore a suit of yellow silk with brown and white accessories for traveling. Upon their return they will reside at Lorane.

La Comus Club Picnic.
 The La Comus club held their annual picnic Tuesday noon at the home of Mrs. Harry Metcalf. Bridge was played during the afternoon. Mr. Metcalf, Virginia and Joan Metcalf, Junior Glass and Geraldine Kem were additional guests. The club adjourned until September.

Grand Officers Honored.
 The Rainbow Assembly met Monday night at the Masonic hall. Degree work was exemplified with Maxine Christensen as candidate. Ruth Stowell, Peggy Savage and Virginia Metcalf, delegates to the Grand Assembly held last week in Baker, gave reports. Mrs. Vinal Randall, mother advisor who accompanied them, also spoke. Officers from the Eastern Star, sponsor chapter for the Rainbow, honored Ruth Stowell, who acted as grand representative from Vermont at the Grand Assembly and was later appointed Grand Fidelity, with a floral degree and presented her with a gift. Peggy Savage, who was grand organist at the recent assembly, was also presented with a gift and later, on behalf of the delegates, Mr. and Mrs. Randall were presented with a gift. This was the last meeting of Rainbow until September.
