Weekly ChatUnaccustomed as we are to making public speeches
we can't help but say a word about the coming attractions—

On Friday, July 3, we have that thriller, "THE WALKING DEAD," with Boris Karloff guaranteed to give you a thrill. For Saturday, July 4, "TUMBLING TUMBLEWEEDS," with the singing cowboy, Gene Autry. "THE MOON'S OUR HOME" is the enticing love melodrama for our program Sunday-Monday, July 5-6. The stars of this picture are Margaret Sullivan and Henry Fonda. Tuesday, July 7, will be a thrilling drama of the high seas, "BORN FOR GLORY." Robert Montgomery and Rosealine Russell make a lovable pair for the comedy drama, "TROUBLE FOR TWO," showing July 8-9, and also I must mention on this program for July 8-9 the biggest thrill of the year, the SCHMELING - LOUIS FIGHT PICTURES.
