THE CHURCHES

A Four Church Union Service.

The congregations of the Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist and Christian churches, joined in a union service in the Baptist church last Sunday evening. Rev. E. E. Coulter delivered the sermon, which dealt principally with the liquor traffic in Cottage Grove. Some of the highlights of the sermon were the comparison of the liquor traffic to a "mad bull which we have turned loose; our children are being gored to death and we sit by with half-closed eyes and cowardly tongues afraid to speak against it. Go to the polls and vote it out of town, out of the county and out of the state. Now is the time to do it and let Cottage Grove be the first. We hear a terrible crash, we rush to the street to find two automobiles wrecked. We see our boy or girl ground to death... a terrible crime has been committed, the driver was drunk... who is guilty of this crime? The driver is sent to prison, but the one who sold the liquor and you church members and preachers who sit by and let this curse go on are just as guilty morally as the driver... Get up and use your vote to stop this highway slaughter."

Rev. Harry R. R. Neet speaking from Luke 18:35-43 on the "blind beggar" emphasized the fact that many people are blind in a spiritual sense and urged them to come to the divine "Healer" for sight. Mr. Neet sang, accompanied by Mrs. Neet on her piano accordion. Services were announced for the following Sunday, July 26, at 11 a. m. at the Blue Mt. Sunday school.

The ladies' aid society of the Methodist church held a picnic Wednesday afternoon at the city park. Lunch was served at noon followed by a meeting and social entertainment. Additional guests were Mrs. G. W. Grannis, Turlock, Cal., Mrs. H. R. Adams, Mrs. Carl Rynearson, G. H. Arnest and A. W. Woolley. A number of children also attended. The committee in charge were Mrs. Omer Moore, Mrs. A. W. Woolley and Mrs. E. E. Cone.

Members of the junior choir of the Methodist church school are holding a picnic this afternoon at 4 o'clock on the church lawn.

Members of the Altar society of the Catholic church and children of the church held a picnic Wednesday afternoon at Cedar Creek near Hebron. A basket dinner was served at noon followed by a meeting and swimming and games for entertainment. It was voted to disperse with the August meeting and meet in September at the home of Mrs. Merle Porter.

The Presbyterian missionary society met Wednesday afternoon for their annual summer meeting at the home of Mrs. Roy Short. The Short garden proved a pleasant place for the meeting. Devotionals were led by Mrs. Mary Smith. A play, "The Friend of Children," was given by a group of children under the direction of Mrs. R. A. Trask. A number of special guests were present. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon. The society will not meet again until September.

The Baptist ladies missionary society met Wednesday afternoon at the church with Mrs. K. K. Mills and Mrs. Clint Spriggs as hostesses. Reports were given by the women, who attended the church house party assembly held last week at Cascadia. The lesson study on Africa was read by Mrs. Ollie Pickens. Refreshments were served following the program.

Springfield Is Victim of Slugging Locals; King's Men Win 13-2

Three Pitchers Fail to Stop Team Batting Average of 428; Riley and Johnson in Action.

Three Springfield pitchers, Mauney, Rudshaw and Mattison, labored long and hard under a burning sun Sunday but failed to halt the march of Carl King's mighty batmen, who garnered 18 hits for a team average of 428, and collected 13 runs to 2 for the visitors. It was the third straight victory for the locals, who have amassed a total of 29 runs in the last three games, while holding their opponents to 2.

Riley, starting pitcher for the first time this season, was easily master of the situation, in spite of allowing six free tickets, hitting four men and walking two. He allowed but five hits and kept these well scattered. Reuben Johnson, who relieved Riley in the ninth, demonstrated that he was in old time form by smacking a hard hit ball to the fence for a double and then striking out two and taking an assist on the third putout.

Mauney, starting pitcher for Springfield, gave up in disgust in the fifth and walked off the field, Rudshaw replacing him. Frequent errors on the part of teammates, and general lack of support apparently was the reason. Rudshaw lasted but an inning and was relieved by Mattison.

Libby, who had an off day at bat the week previous, made up at it Sunday by collecting four hits out of five trips to the plate, for the best performance of the day. Bricher followed with 2 out of 2, Cooper 3 out of 5, Cox and Shortridge each took 2 out of 5. Every man on the team hit safely with the exception of Decker, who made but one trip to the plate. On the defensive side every member of the infield turned in some good work. They combined forces for a total of 17 put outs. The outfield got but two. Riley secured 6 strikeouts and Johnson 2.

The lineup for Cottage Grove: Swanson, 3b; Cooper, ss; Bricher, 1b; Libby, c; Witche, cf; Shortridge, lf; Cellers, rf; Cox, 2b; Riley and Johnson p. For Springfield: Dietz, 3b; and c; Snyder, 2b; Chaterton, ss; Doc Taylor, cf; Mattison c and p; Vandehy, 1b; Taylor lf, 3b; Shull, rf; Mauney, p. Rudshaw, p; Gaar, 3b.

The score by innings:
Cottage Grove 0 0 4 1 2 3 3 0 —13

Cisco Fish in Great Lakes

The cisco, a fish of many local names, is among the most abundant of all fish found in the Great Lakes. It is variously known as Lake herring, Blue-back, Gray-back, Green-back and shore herring. The annual catch made by commercial fishermen in Michigan waters alone runs about 4,000,000 pounds a year.
