Your Congressman

James W. MOTT

(Republican Senator)

CONGRESSMAN MOTT is one of the recognized leaders of the National House of Representatives.

He has placed the First Congressional District of Oregon in the most commanding and secure position it has ever occupied in the House.

He has obtained for his district more beneficial legislation and more Federal revenue than it has ever received before.

He is a ranking member of the two standing committees of the House (the Committee on Roads and the Committee on Public Lands) which respectively control most of the national legislation directly affecting the First Oregon District.

He is a member of the Committee on Committees—the most powerful legislative authority of the House of Representatives.

He holds a strategic place in the floor organization of his own party in the House and is a member of the council which determines legislative policy in that body.

HIS RE-ELECTION ASSURES CONTINUED ACTIVE AND EXPERIENCED REPRESENTATION IN CONGRESS.

Cal Young for Commissioner

Without reservation, The Register-News recommends the reelection of Cal E. Young as county commissioner. No public official has ever given Lane county more intelligent or conscientious service. Some of Mr. Young's critics raise the point that during his term of office "no more" have not been out "as promised." This is a quibble. The reductions have straddled more than $1,000,000 during Mr. Young's term of office, with the inevitable effect of pushing levies upward. The real situation is that during his term county expenditures were reduced some $275,000 in 1935; $294,000 in 1936; $194,000 in 1937 as compared with previous expenditures, and this despite the fact that legislative changes in pension and relief laws involved Lane county in much new and added expense.

When Cal Young entered office, county warrants totaled more than $74,000. Today the county operates on a cash basis. The county has paid off $225,000 in principal and interest on road bonds; it has paid $100,000 in state taxes, where the (through many other counties were delinquent). The real complaint that Cal Young has not kept faith with promises of economy does not stand up. No public official could have met the problems of depression, constantly changing legislation with better sense.

In the routine of the commissioner's office Cal Young has been diligent. He has given his personal supervision to the road problems and other matters of importance to the welfare of his district. With the limited means at hand and it should be remembered that the county has more than $1,000,000 in debt; there has been consistent progress. Such projects as Route 7, for instance, could not have gone forward at all but for funds and the expert management.

Cal Young has been only one of three commissioners, but his influence has been constructive and he commands confidence.

If Mr. Young's opponent on the Republican ticket we have no criticism. He is well thought of. But he can offer little concrete change for the sake of change and we believe this always is a mistake in public or private business. It is an opportunity to keep such a citizen as Cal Young in public office.—Editorial, Eugene Register-News, October 24, 1936.
