Armistice Services

Armistice Day services at the First Christian church were attended by a large crowd that filled the house. Delegations from five patriotic organizations were in attendance. In the sermon Rev. Coulter gave a picture of the present day world conditions as foretold by the Word of God and that today our enemy is not across the waters of the Atlantic or the Pacific ocean, but that it is within our own borders, boring into the very heart of our nation, communism plans to overthrow the government. In Europe they are using weapons of war, while in America they are using the ballot. The American Legion is leading in the fight to wipe this curse from our land. Every true blooded American will be in the same condition Spain is in today.

City Librarian Notes Increased Use of Library

The city library reported 21 new borrowers' cards issued during the month of September and 28 for the month of October. The increased numbers are very unusual, said Mrs. Dan Hamant, city librarian, when giving the report. The total of borrowers' cards is 1437, a noticeable record.

Recent additions to the shelves were a ten volume set of the Book of Knowledge, children's encyclopedia, given by Mrs. George Stowell; "The Life of Will Rogers," a gift from Mrs. B. R. Job; a number of children's classics and fiction stories, given by Elbert Smith Jr., Evelyn Smith and Ruth Stowell. Two books, "The Long Night," by Andrew Lytle, and "Gone With The Wind," by Margaret Mitchell, both stories of Civil War days, have been added to the rental shelf. New material for the reading table includes The Readers Digest.

With the increased number of books constantly in circulation other gift donations are hoped for and will be gratefully received by the library board.
