Lions To Tangle With Lebanon Here Friday

Enthusiasm is running high in the Cottage Grove schools, and in the business section, as the day for the battle between the Lions and the Lebanon Berry Pickers draws near. The two football teams will tangle at Kelly field Friday.

One of the two undefeated and untied teams in their division in the state this year, the Lions will go into the battle determined to retain unmarred their record for this season, although it is conceded that Lebanon will likely offer them the toughest opposition they have faced.

It is the last game in high school football for nine of Coach French's squad, who are seniors, unless a post season game is arranged.

A capacity crowd is expected at the field to cheer the Lions on to victory.
