Red Cross Roll Call Underway

A group of club women met this afternoon at the city hall to receive instructions for the Red Cross Roll call which will start in the city residence district tomorrow (Friday). The membership drive is sponsored this year by the American Legion auxiliary under the supervision of Mrs. Max Bird. Fourteen women will conduct the drive making a house to house canvass of the city.

It is hoped, said Mrs. Bird, that the public responds generously as demands on relief funds may be increased this winter, due to the influx this year of families in to all parts of the state.

Georg Bjorset Buys Fine Bull At Montana Sale

Georg Bjorset of the Daugherty Lumber company purchased the Polled Hereford bull, "A Choice Domino" at the first annual auction of the Montana Polled Hereford association at Butte last week. The bull, regarded as the best offering at the sale, sold for $500, the top price reached at the sale. It was consigned by the Bayers Herford ranch of Twin Bridges, Montana.

Mr. Bjorset will use the bull on his 1200 acre ranch on Hills creek located five miles above Jasper where he already has a number of heifers. He purchased the ranch last spring from Baxter Young, who was engaged in the stock business there for many years. Delbert Sikes is looking after the ranch for Mr. Bjorset.

effect that was the reply of Governor Martin to delegations which picketed the state house this week and called at the executive department in search of financial aid for destitute refugees from the states of the middle west. The governor declared that financial aid would be provided in returning destitute families to their home states but that they could not be given relief since they were not citizens of this state and Oregon already had enough needy people of its own to take care of.
