Williams-Hubbell Wedding.

Miss June G. Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams, and Elmer K. Hubbell, son of Wilson Hubbell, were married Sunday at the home of the bride's parents in the Hebron community.

The ceremony was performed at 1 o'clock in the presence of more than forty guests, including relatives and friends of the two families. Rev. James A. Smith officiated. The bride wore a becoming frock of white lace and carried a shower bouquet of pink and white carnations. Her only attendant, Miss Stella Smith, wore a dress of pink chiffon crepe and carried white chrysanthemums. The bride's brother, Stewart Williams, acted as best man. Preceding the ceremony Miss Marie Gilham played, "I Love You Truly," on the violin. Accompanied by Mrs. Frank LaBlue at the piano. They also played the wedding march. A wedding dinner was served at the Central hotel.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hubbell were graduated from the Cottage Grove high school in the class of 1936. The couple left later in the afternoon for a wedding trip to cities in California. Upon their return they will make their home at the Central hotel. Out of town guests, who attended the wedding, included Mrs. H. Boothby, Portland; Mrs. Lenora Pyburn, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hubbell, Yoncalla; W. A. Jordin, Seattle; Miles Fowler, Vancouver, Wash.; Holt Grimes, Eugene.

BARTELS TO ENTERTAIN LOCAL FIGSKIN PUSHERS

The Cottage Grove Lions, high school football team which completed a successful season Thanksgiving day, will be guests this evening (Thursday) of Wm. Bartels Sr. for a turkey dinner at the Palace cafe. Additional guests will be Supt. H. B. Ferrin, Prin. F. L. Grannis, Coach Curtis French and James Lewis and Chester Johnson, both members of the high school faculty, and S. L. Mackin, who is official rooter for the team. The program during the dinner will include talks and pep singing by the team, which won their way to fame in musical circles with shower room singing.

Bill entertained the team with a banquet following the season last year and is classed as a "regular guy" by the squad.

Local Couple Wed

Helen Beard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Ward, and Wendell Cochran, son of Mrs. Mary Cochran, were united in marriage Monday in Eugene. The ceremony was performed by Judge Fred Fiske. Both Mr. and Mrs. Cochran have been residents here for a number of years and will continue to make their home in the city.

Hope Fiester, Pioneer Resident, Dies Nov. 26

Hope H. Fiester, a long time resident of Cottage Grove, died Thursday forenoon, November 26, at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Pansy Allison, in Portland. K. K. Mills went to Portland for the remains. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Mills chapel, Rev. I. G. Shaw of Springfield, officiating. Interment was in A. F. & A. M. I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Mr. Fiester was born September 18, 1857, in Munice, Penn. He was married in 1886 to May Battles at Motley, Minn. Mrs. Fiester passed away two years ago. Mr. Fiester was a resident here for 25 years and was engaged in business for many years. At one time he was associated with the Pacific Timber company and was also in the concrete contracting business for many years. After the death of his wife he retired and made his home with the daughter in Portland.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Allison; Mrs. Viola Fiester, Austin, Minn.; two brothers, William of Austin, Minn.; David of Hollywood, Cal.

Criticism Not Feared

"A truly great man," said Hi Ho, the sage of Chinatown: "does not fear criticism. It is the mistaken critic who will be hurt by his own recollections."
