Many Witness Ceremony.

An impressive ceremony, crowning Miss Kathleen Daugherty as worthy advisor of the Rainbow order, was performed by a corps of officers of the DeMolay order from Eugene Monday night at installation of Rainbow officers. The ceremony followed a business meeting and regular installation of all officers. Miss Daugherty was found in waiting and escorted by a page to the various stations where her advisory duties were presented. She entered the east and kneeling in royal splendor received the crown of her Rainbow authority. Miss Virginia Metcalf, retiring worthy advisor, presided at the regular installation. Miss Georgia Knowles presented Virginia with a gift from the Order and Mrs. Vinal Randall, retiring mother advisor, presented her with a personal gift. Mrs. Randall also presented gifts to Miss Eunice VanDenberg, retiring assistant advisor, and to four girls, Phyllis Monson, Mary-Jane Smith, Annie Marie Peterson and Jane Stowell, all of whom had a perfect attendance during the past year. Miss Metcalf presented Mrs. Randall a gift from the assembly. Corsages were presented Mrs. C. E. Umphrey, worthy matron of the Eastern Star; Mrs. Schofield Stewart, mother advisor; Kathleen Daugherty, and a boutonniere to Dr. Lebow, Rainbow dad. Miss Daugherty was also presented with a basket of flowers from the Eugene Rainbow order. They were presented by Marjory Theda, newly elected worthy advisor of the Eugene order, and Marjoryellen Titus. At the close of the evening refreshments were served in the dining hall. The tables were attractively decorated with candles of Rainbow shades and trailing ivy. The committee in charge was Mrs. Carl King, Mrs. C. J. Kem, Mrs. Harry Metcalf and Mrs. Joe Smith. Dancing furnished entertainment for the young folks. About 25 visitors from Eugene were present, including C. A. Fields, advisor for the De Molay. Officers installed were listed in The Sentinel two weeks ago.

Homecoming Planned

The new officers of the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges were inducted into service last Thursday at a joint installation with more than 100 members present to witness the ceremony. Installing officers were Charles Conner, Mrs. Lucy Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKibben. Plans were made for the annual homecoming to be held Friday night, February 5. Mrs. Zula Hansen, retiring noble grand of the Rebekahs, was presented with a gift by Mrs. Clara Stevens, who represented the lodge. H. Cohn of Pasadena and Mr. and Mrs. Presnell of Mosby Creek were guests. At the close of the evening refreshments were served by the following: Eva Aubrey, Nellie King, Lena Hamloth, Vern Stewart, Geo. Sweet, Alfred Beidler. The officers installed were listed in the Sentinel at time of election.

Committees Appointed

The Eastern Star met Friday evening with the corps of newly installed officers in the chairs. The obligation was renewed in an impressive ceremony. Mrs. Pearl Umphrey, worthy matron, announced as standing committees for the year the following: Finance, Mabel Smith, Gladys Hall, W. L. Workman; relief, Glennie Frost, Bernice Sanford, Lorena Haynes; refreshments, Hansina Jacobsen, Sylvia Griggs, Bertie Durham; house, Elsie Spriggs, Elizabeth Mills; examining, Helen Roberts, E. R. Lemley; instruction, Anna Graham, Irma Thum, Vinal Randall; entertainment, Mabel Helliwell, Mary Workman, Francis Horn; decorating, Jennie Beidler, Ina Godard; music, Dove Trask; Acacia club representative, Fay Allison.

W. R. C. Have Dinner - Installation

The Women's Relief Corps installed officers Saturday following a potluck dinner served at noon. The officers who were unable to be present, will be installed at a later meeting. In the absence of Mrs. Ella Fleck, installing officer who was ill, Mrs. Minnie Sweet, a past president, was in charge of the ceremony.

Workman held high score for the afternoon. Mrs. L. S. Goddard was a guest. Mrs. Herbert Lombard will entertain in two weeks.

Veterans Auxiliary Installs

The Spanish American War Veterans auxiliary and the Veterans' held a covered dish dinner Friday evening at the armory. Separate meetings followed. The auxiliary held an installation for a part of their staff. Some were unable to attend due to illness. Mrs. Rose Peterson was installed president. Mrs. Joseph Chapman was presented with a past president's pin. Mrs. George Sweet, a past president, was installing officer. A program, commemorating the birthday anniversary of the late president, William McKinley, was presented. Due to a small attendance the Veterans' group postponed their installation until a later meeting.

Friendly Club Elect Officers.

The Friendly club met Tuesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Pias Anlauf for a no-hostess luncheon followed by a business meeting and social afternoon. Officers elected for the coming year were Mrs. Anlauf, president; Mrs. N. E. Compton, vice president; Mrs. L. Wertz, secretary and treasurer. The club will hold the February meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Bressler.

Dr. and Mrs. Lebow Hosts.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Lebow entertained a group at dinner Wednesday of last week in celebration of their third wedding anniversary and to honor Mr. and Mrs. Brewer Mills, who were married a few weeks ago. Places were arranged for ten. The evening was spent in social entertainment.

Birthday Anniversary Party
