She was employed at the Sentinel office more than twenty years ago when the paper was published as The Leader.

Miss Pearl Monroe plans to leave Sunday for Corvallis where she has employment.

Mr. and Mrs. William Garoutte went to Portland Monday on business and for a few days visit with relatives.

The Eugene Axmen, with little effort, chalked up another victory in their race for district basketball championship honors Tuesday night when they defeated the Cottage Grove Lions 38-14.

The Lions, scrappy throughout the game, made a good showing in the first quarter when the score stood 6-3 for the victors. During the first half they were in possession of the ball equally as much of the time as their opponents. Their shots were long and failure to find the basket proved their weakness. Eugene was listless and spectators waited for a thrill until the last quarter when Eugene's second string went into the fray. Stevenson of Eugene was high point man with 11 points to his credit.

The "B" squad of the Lions took Eugene "B" team in a victory 19-15.

The Cottage Grove lineup in the league game was Decker, F. 1; Grimes, F. 4; Guggisberg, C. 2; Hall, G. 1; Jennings, G. 2; Ferrin, 2; MacGibbon; Tracy, 2; Grannis. The Lions will meet Springfield in a return game on the local floor Friday night.
