Tragedy or Folly?

A few days ago the newspapers and radio told of a horrible air accident which cost many lives and perhaps five million dollars. Accidents which result in death are always regrettable but personally we haven't a lot of sympathy with those who persist in building and flying these death traps as they have proven to be. We have no funds for relief or old age assistance, yet spend millions on impractical and useless aircraft. Why not be satisfied with the fairly safe and speedy modes of travel already perfected and use these funds where they can add to the comfort and welfare of those less fortunate. What do you think?

We try to keep our prices in line with our quality.

What is the "Low-price Field"?

YOU hear a lot about "the low-price field" these days. A good many cars claim to be in it. So whenever the low-price field is mentioned, remember:

Until Ford came, no average American could own a car.

Today all Ford prices are still low — with the prices of the 60-horsepower Ford V-8 $30 to $60 lower than those of any other car of comparable size.

But with Ford, "low price" doesn't merely mean low figures on the price tag. It means much more than that. It means low prices and low costs all the car's long life. Low prices for service — for parts — and, above all, for operation.

Both Ford V-8 engine sizes are economical to operate. The 85 horsepower gives greater gasoline mileage this year than ever, and the "60" delivers the highest mileage in Ford history.

Private owners, cab companies, fleet operators all report that the "60" averages from 22 to 27 miles per gallon of gasoline.

Check and see how much Ford saves you.
