LANE COUNTY HAS

47 C. C. C. OPENINGS
Lane county will be able to send 47 boys to C. C. C. camps, according to the present allotment set aside for this county. New regulations offer better opportunity for boys of this district as it is no longer necessary to belong to a relief family. Any boy between the ages of 17 and 23 who is in need of employment may enroll. However, preference will be given to those from relief families.

Further information in regard to enrollment may be secured by writing or calling at the Lane county relief committee offices in Eugene.

A spotted fawn has been adopted as mascot by the Reevera CCC camp near Timber in northern Washington county, according to Lynn Cronemiller, deputy state forester. The pet has been christened "Four Bits" which, interpreted, means "half a buck."
