

SALE of BLANKETS

Single Plaid Sheet Blanket
66x76
89c value 69c

Plaid Double Blanket
5% Wool
66x80 $1.98

25% Wool—Reversible Blanket
Taped edge
70x80 $3.95

Jacquard Blanket
Fine for cars, davenport or camping
66x80 $1.59

Camp Blankets
2½ lbs. Dark colors. 60x80 $1.98

Plaid Part Wool
70 x 80 $2.89

Petersen's

CITY BRIEFS

Hall and Johnston, Real Estate, Loans, Sure Insurance. Phone 58.

Bob Grannis spent the week end in Eugene as the guest of Bill Graham. The boys drove to Suttle lake Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Kem returned Saturday from Portland, where she had visited for three weeks.

Mrs. J. H. Bartels will leave Sunday for Portland to visit with her daughters, Mattie Clark and Sarah Powers, and granddaughter, Ruth Horn.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Beach and Ralph Monroe will leave Friday to spend the week end in Portland. The three will attend Portland fleet week events and Mr. Beach will take the state barbers' examination.

Mrs. Sadie Yantis of St. Louis, Mo., is a house guest at the home of a niece, Mrs. K. K. Mills.

Out of town relatives who attended the funeral of L. M. Haney last Thursday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Ward Lundy, Jay Lundy and son Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Lundy and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lundy and daughter, all of Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Purl Lundy of Coquille and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Masters of Corvallis.

Miss Jean Mills of North Bend is visiting at the K. K. Mills and Brewer Mills homes here.

Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Coulter are the grandparents of a baby boy, born July 13 at a Salem hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Coulter of Halsey. The mother and child are reported as doing well.

The Gray Goose for Ice Cream. tf

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shay left Tuesday for Portland, where they will spend a month at the homes of

M. H. Morris

Electric Wiring for Power and Light

Prompt Response to Service Calls

825 Main Street—Next Door to Fred's Place

spent Sunday in Glendale with Mrs. Haldeman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Job Davis. They also visited with two of Mrs. Haldeman's aunts who were there from Chicago, this being the first time that Mrs. Haldeman has seen them.

SEE TWIN OAKS FOR REAL VALUES.

Miss Betty Jacobsen is working in the office of the Cottage Grove Lumber company, taking the place of Forrest Lemley, who is ill.

Mrs. Dorothy Stewart Chapman returned last week to her home in Sauk, Wash., after visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. La Sells Stewart.

Joe McCargar and his mother, Mrs. Mary McCargar, returned Tuesday from a two months' trip through California, Nevada, Texas, Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho, Utah.

Mrs. G. E. Stowell returned from Portland yesterday, the 14th, where she had spent several days visiting friends and her daughter Ruth, who has a position with Meier and Frank.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morelock and son, William Jr. and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Cleo Morelock, plan to leave this (Thursday) evening for Portland where they will be joined by Mr. Morelock's sister, on a trip to Elgin, Oregon for a Morelock family reunion. They plan to be gone a week.

Get that cold refreshing drink at the Gray Goose.

A WPA engineer, V. H. Todd, was here Tuesday inspecting the work being done on the Bennett Creek road by WPA workers. A bulldozer started work there the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Scoffern of the Cottage Grove Hotel visited relatives at Vancouver, Oregon, over the weekend.

Mrs. Don Allen and aunt, Mrs. A. M. DuVall, left Wednesday morning on a motor trip to San Francisco, Cal., where they will visit Mrs. Jennie W. Nichols, grandmother of Mrs. Allen.

Rev. and Mrs. Meredith Groves of Portland will arrive Friday to spend the week end with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey. Rev. Groves was pastor of the local M. E. church and left two years ago to accept a pastorate in Portland.

Mrs. Glennie Frost visited last Friday in Corvallis with Mrs. Harold Johnson.

Mrs. Judson Allen is confined to her home by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Wheeler of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Muller of Silverton returned Wednesday night from a vacation spent on the Metolius river. Mr. Muller went on to Portland today on business and Mrs. Muller remained for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler.

Mrs. Bert Trask left Saturday for San Francisco, where she will attend teachers' college for three weeks.

Miss Phyllis Monson left Sunday for Port Orford, where she has employment.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Denson spent the week end in Carlton. Mrs. Denson left Tuesday from Portland for Chicago to meet a sister and motor back to Oregon with her.

Dr. Harold Axley was robbed of three medical cases when his car was broken into Saturday night.

C. J. Howard has sold his house and land at 1040 south Sixth street to Dan Hamant. The deal was completed Monday.

YOUR MONEY GOES A LOT FARTHER AT TWIN OAKS.

We Are Now In A Position to Supply

Both Grade A

Pasteurized

and

Raw Milk

Delivered Daily

DELIGHT VALLEY DAIRY

Phone 35F5

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Stewart of Seneca visited briefly last week with Mr. Stewart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. LaSells Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. William Haldeman

Bill Miller on his way back from the Department Encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans at Medford stopped off at Roseburg to visit W. N. Hubbell who is in the hospital at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fleck, after attending the Department Encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans at Medford went on to Yosemite National Park.

Mrs. Stewart Carlson left Monday for San Francisco, where she will visit friends for two weeks.

Spanish War Vets Favor An Orphans Training School

The following delegates from the local Burt B. Chandler Camp No. 26 of United Spanish War Veterans of Cottage Grove have returned from the annual department encampment: George Sweet, Claude Hawkins, Dave Von Needa and I. G. Shaw.

They all enthusiastically praise the hospitality of the people of Medford, where the encampment was held.

The resolution adopted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars convention at Astoria providing for the establishment of a training school and home for orphan children of veterans West of the Rocky Mountains was endorsed unanimously and enthusiastically.

I. G. Shaw, a member of the local camp was elected Department Inspector.

PATCHING ROW RIVER ROAD

A road crew is at work on the Row River road out of Cottage Grove, patching the holes caused by the continued and unusual amount of rain this spring.

Harry Rentle

Cottage Grove General Repair Shop

Bicycle, Key & Gun Work
Lawn Mower Sharpening

Cottage Grove, Oregon

SHARPS CREEK ROAD OPEN
H. E. D. Brown, Rujada forest ranger, announced Thursday that the Sharps Creek road into the Bohemias is now open for travel, making it possible to complete a Bohemia trip with the loop drive. The Sharps Creek road is not advised for other than experienced mountain drivers, with cars in good condition. Mr. Brown states the drive is unusually beautiful at this season and well worthwhile for those who enjoy mountain driving. Office Supplies. The Sentinel.

SAVE $40⁰⁰

on your

Refrigerator!

◆ ◆ ◆

We Are Closing Out Our Stock of

CROSLEY SHELVADORS

◆ ◆ ◆

Here is your chance to make a real saving on high class merchandise. Limited Supply, and they won't last long at these low prices.

We have just received the new 1938 Crosley Radios—we believe they are the outstanding values of the year.

Drop in and see them.

Grove Hardware

John A. Long, Prop.

Closing Out Sale Still On!

Better Hurry and Get Your Share of Outstanding Bargains in Hardware!

The same substantial price reductions announced through these columns last week are still in effect. While our stock is getting low in a few lines, we still have a good supply of

Doors, Windows, Paint, Roofing Papers and Builder's Hardware

As well as most lines of regular hardware

Buy Now and Save!

TWIN OAKS