The Boy Scout Mothers' Club Gives a Picnic

The Boy Scout Mothers club gave an enjoyable picnic and supper at Layngs grove Wednesday evening. Those invited were the members of the local Boy Scout patrol and their fathers, the local Girl Scouts, their Fathers and Mothers. At least one hundred persons were seated at the three long tables and they did all eat, and were filled, but the Mothers did not make known the number baskets they filled with the "fragments that remained."

A ball game, horseshoe pitching and other games provided diversion for the girl and boy scouts, but it must be recorded that the fathers of the boy and girl scouts completely monopolized the horseshoe pitching. This inadequate story of the picnic would have been longer if it were not for the fact that the writer's good right arm is sore.

The Boy Scout Mothers club was recently organized and is proving to be one of the most outstanding and helpful organizations in the city.
