Roy Quiny Named Supervisor Of Adult Education.

Roy Quiny today was named supervisor of adult education for Lane county under the WPA setup. He replaces George Bertram, who recently resigned to accept a position with the United States employment service.

Mr. Quiny said that he was not yet ready to announce plans for adult education work in Cottage Grove but would make an announcement at an early date. The playground activities conducted here this summer also come under his supervision and he hopes to make arrangements for winter work here.

Bridges Not Mentioned in Bible

Bridges are not mentioned in the Bible, but according to other records a brick arch was erected across the Euphrates river within the city of Babylon.

Fifty Days for Airmail

The first airmail flight across the United States, made by Galbraith Rogers in 1911, took 50 days and 63 stops.

Planting New Truths

Schopenhauer, the German philosopher, said: "It is not so difficult a task to plant new truths as to root out old errors, for there is this paradox in men—they run after that which is new, but are prejudiced in favor of that which is old."

"Era of Good Feeling"

The name "era of good feeling" was applied to the period from 1817-23, when the Federalist party having declined, there was little open party feeling. The phrase was coined at the time of President Monroe's good-will tour through the North.

First Shipping of Ice

Probably the first ice cut and shipped as an article of commercial value was sent, in 1799, from New York to Charleston, S. C. The real beginning of the industry came in the year 1805 when Frederic Tudor of Boston shipped a cargo of 130 tons to the West Indies.

Flamingoes Expert Fish-Catchers

The flamingoes are bird fishers. Their curious bent bills, which permit the mud to be forced out through the little side-strainers until the food is washed clean and is ready to swallow, have been compared to potato mashers.

MERCURY BOOKS

25c

For a Full-Length Novel

Here at last are the books America has been longing for. Designed by America's foremost book designer—well printed—handsomely bound in a special English-finish cover paper. At a price which has brought long, loud applause from every section of the country—25c for a full-length novel.

These great book bargains are made possible only because leading book publishers and authors are accepting a low royalty, because the books are printed on special high speed presses in quantities of 100,000, and because THE AMERICAN MERCURY—America's leading literary magazine—has launched the enterprise without charging any overhead or editorial expense to it.

To date we have published 4 books—all distributed through the better newsstands of America.

- COMPANY K—"An extraordinarily moving and an important book..." Saturday Review of Literature.
- THIRTEEN STEPS—a powerful, startling novel paced by breathless action and a strange love story.
- EVERYTHING IS THUNDER—described by O. O. McIntyre as "the most absorbing book I've read in five years."
- THE POSTMAN ALWAYS RINGS TWICE—described by the famous F. P. A. as "the most engrossing, unlaydownable book that I have any memory of."

If your news dealer is sold out and cannot supply you with the books, use the coupon below for these great bargains.

Send 25c in coin or stamps for each book desired—or $1.00 for all four books—to THE AMERICAN MERCURY, 570 Lexington Ave., New York.
