Miss Grace Grimes Becomes Bride of Wayne Monroe.

The wedding of Miss Grace Grimes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Grimes of Silk Creek, and Wayne Monroe, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Monroe of this city, was solemnized at 10 o'clock Sunday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Ellsworth Tilton, pastor of the Cottage Grove Methodist church, officiated. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Carroll Grimes, sister-in-law of the bride, sang "O Promise Me." The wedding march from Lohengren was played by Mrs. Ellsworth Tilton. The bridal couple stood under an archway of ferns and flowers banked with autumn leaves and tall urns filled with flowers. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride wore a floor-length dress of tea rose moire taffeta. She wore a corsage of gardenias, white roses and white baby chrysanthemums. She also wore a set of pearl-headed medallions which had been a part of her mother's wedding costume. A wedding dinner was served after which the bride and groom left on a short honeymoon. Those present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Grimes and Mr. and Mrs. James Monroe, parents of the bride and groom, Mrs. H. L. Dorks of Salem, an aunt of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Grimes and little daughter Caroline of Eugene, Misses Pearl and Ina May Monroe and Ralph and Carl Monroe. After November 1, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe will be at home at 1004 south Sixth street. Both are graduates of Cottage Grove high school.

Spies-Von Arx Nuptials Solemnized in Eugene

An event of interest to many friends was the charming wedding Wednesday of Miss Louise Von Arx, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Von Arx of Baker, and Richard Spies, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Spies of Cottage Grove. Rev. Father Anthony Gerace officiated at the nuptial mass held at St. Mary's church in Eugene. Mrs. Cora Moore Frey played organ selections preceding and during the ceremony. The bride wore a princess style wedding dress of ivory satin with lace bodice. The fullness of the skirt was caught with rose buds. A coronation style veil was trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds, button chrysanthemums and fern. Miss Florence Spies, attending the bride, wore a turquoise blue taffeta princess style dress with gold accessories. Willard Spies, brother of the groom, was best man. Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was held at the Osburn hotel, members of the immediate families and Father Gerace attending. A huge three-tier wedding cake decorated with ivory and pink rosebuds formed the centerpiece. Following a brief wedding trip the couple will be at home in Eugene.

Ladies Class Makes Quilts

The finishing of quilts to be used in calls for aid have occupied the time of the Ladies' Bible class of the Methodist church at their last two monthly meetings. Hostesses for the September meeting were Mrs. F. C. Hauser and Miss C. M. Clark. For the October meeting Mrs. Alta Hart and Mrs. Margaret Schultz were hostesses. Covered dish luncheons were served and after the regular business meeting all worked on the quilts. Reports showed that numerous calls were made and bouquets sent to the sick and shut-ins. Deep regret was expressed over the illness of one of the most faithful members of the class, Mrs. J. H. Chambers, and all wished for her speedy recovery. No regular November meeting of the class will be held but all who are able will gather at the home of Mrs. W. A. Hogate to finish articles for the coming bazaar. An invitation is extended to all not affiliated with any other church to attend all meetings of this class.
