The M. P. G. club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Benton C. Schrenk. A turkey dinner was served in the kitchen country style. The table cover was red and white checked oil cloth. The center piece was formed by an artistic arrangement of wooden salad bowls filled with nuts, candy and caramel popcorn balls, interspersed with cedar, holly and mistletoe. Unique place cards were made of sections of oak limbs with small bouquets of mistletoe in the center of each of them. There was an exchange of gifts. The hostess, who is the president of the club, gave each member a present. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Karl Mills Tuesday, January 11.

The Cottage Grove Chapter No. 4 Order of Eastern Star at the regular meeting Friday evening elected the following officers for the coming year: Mrs. Gladys Hall, worthy matron; William Thum, worthy patron; Mrs. Ina Godard, associate matron; Knaffle Haynes, associate patron; Mrs. Velma Harrel, secretary; Mrs. Gausine Jacobson, treasurer; Miss Eunice Vandenberg, conductress; Mrs. Mary Workman, associate conductress. There will be a public installation January 14 at Masonic temple. Refreshments will be served in the banquet room at the close of the meeting. Mrs. Schofield Stewart was chairman of the hostess committee.

The Tuesday Bridge club met on Tuesday of this week at the home of Mrs. R. H. Savage for a 1 o'clock luncheon. This being the Christmas meeting there was an exchange of gifts from the Christmas tree. Mrs. Claude Kime won the first prize. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Herbert Lombard on January 11.

The Odd Fellows held a potluck dinner at the Odd Fellows hall Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hatch and Mr. and Mrs. William Adams. A short skit entitled "Country Wedding" formed a part of the evening's entertainment.

The Women's Relief corps held their annual election of officers at their regular meeting recently at the armory. The following were elected: Mrs. Nellie Paul, president; Edith Jones, senior vice president; Dora Ritchie, junior vice president; Nettie Saling, re-elected chaplain; Anna Schoen, re-elected treasurer; Melinda Aubrey, re-elected guard. These officers will be installed at the meeting on January 8 including appointive officers. A Christmas exchange of gifts formed a social part of the meeting. Mrs. Addie Halgarth is retiring president.

Mrs. C. C. Roberts entertained a group of young friends Friday honoring the birthday of her daughter Arietta. The evening was spent skating at Midway. The guests were Dorothy Bracher, Marjory Earl, Janet Peterson, Shirley Hendrickson, Faye Nixon, Tommy Jones, Brian Stroup, Junior Langston, Alden Garoutte, Kenneth Whitlock, Gene Lusk, Leo Roberts and the honor guest, Arietta. Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Bracher accompanied the young people.

The Degree of Honor met Monday evening for business and social hour. On Friday evening there will be a banquet for the members of the Degree of Honor at the Palace cafe and after the banquet there will be an exchange of gifts followed by bridge at the home of Mrs. Dunford. The committee in charge was Mrs. Jim Nelson, Mrs. Leontine Knickerbocker, Helen Cochran and Bernadine Schneider.

The O. L. H. club met at the home of Mrs. W. W. McFarland Tuesday who was joint hostess with Mrs. W. B. Johnston. Favors were miniature Christmas trees. There was an exchange of gifts. At bridge Mrs. T. C. Wheeler had high score. The club gave Mrs. Johnston a present. The next meeting will be held December 23 at the home of Mrs. Glennie Frost.

The Royal Neighbors enjoyed a Christmas tree and exchange of gifts, following business meeting Tuesday night. Group singing was led by Alice Breedlove. Carolyn Kebebeck played a piano solo and Jean King sang "The End of a Perfect Day." Games were played. This is the last meeting until January.

The Justamere club met Tuesday afternoon for a 1:30 dessert at the home of Mrs. Karl Bracher. The guests were Mrs. Sam Veatch and Mrs. George Kerr. Mrs. Lloyd Griggs won high score. The next meeting will be a Christmas party Thursday evening, December 23, at the home of Mrs. William Earl.

The Loyal women's class of the Christian church will be entertained at the W. M. Morelock home Friday, between the hours of two and four, with the annual Christmas party. All members of the class are urged to attend, with each to bring a small gift for the gift exchange.

The Elmarles club met last Tuesday, December 7, at the home of Mrs. Lorin Schroeder for a 1 o'clock luncheon. Mrs. Myrtle Veatch won high score at bridge. Mrs. William Earl was a guest. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, December 21, at the home of Mrs. Victor Chambers.

Carnation club will meet Friday evening, December 17, for a 6:30 no hostess dinner at the Palace cafe. Later the club will meet at the home of Mrs. Opal Dunford for a social evening.

Mothers' club met Wednesday, December 14, with Mrs. Wells. A potluck dinner was served and gifts were exchanged.

The Utopia club is meeting on Thursday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. H. B. Ferrin.

1938 Fords Go On Display Here Today

Six new units of the 1938 Ford line of cars and trucks were on display today at the local Ford dealers, Woodson Motors.

"We have received a Deluxe Two Door Sedan, three standard two doors, a pickup, and a big logging truck," Wilbur Wilson of the local agency stated Thursday. "They look even better than they did at the preview showing, and we are certainly well pleased. Come down and look them over."

The Ford line this year consists of the standard, with two motor sizes, and the deluxe, with the large motor only, giving the Ford dealers two distinct body types and cars in the widest price range they have had in years.

Royal Neighbors Elect Officers for 1938

Installation of the following recently elected Royal Neighbors will be held Tuesday, January 11:

"Sign of the Cross" to Be Shown Saturday

"The Sign of the Cross" which will be shown at the school gym Saturday, December 18, at 7:30 p. m., sponsored by the Georganna club of the Methodist church, is something more than an inspiring spectacle within itself. It is proof of the fact that Cecil B. DeMille, master of this type of entertainment in the silent days, can bend sound to his will, and produce a film of even vaster proportions than in the past.

The telling of the film's strong story, moreover, has been placed in the hands of an exceptionally talented cast of Frederic Marsh, Marcus Superbus, Elissa Landi, Claudette Colbert, Charles Laugh-ton, Vivian Tobin, Ian Keith, and others.

"The Sign of the Cross" is a great religious story, a great love story and a great spectacle. No matter what your taste you cannot fail to enjoy it.

No admission will be charged but a free will offering will be taken.

Rod and Gun Club to Hold Shoot Sunday

The Cottage Grove Rod and Gun club plans a combination practice and merchandise shoot at the club grounds Sunday, December 19. It is expected that shooters will be given a wide choice of merchandise, probably in the form of due bills good at any one of several stores in Cottage Grove. The policy of operating the shoots on the smallest margin of profit possible, will be continued, club officials state.

A practice shoot last Sunday drew a good attendance during the morning hours, with H. W. Lombard and A. W. Helliwell running a good score, in spite of the fact that neither had shot at the elusive disc for some time. Kelly Cooper proved a hard man to beat, and N. J. Nelson and Mr. Hurd, as well as others were involved in some interesting shoot offs.
