The monthly meeting of the Women's Bible class of the Methodist church was held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Hogate December 8. The house was tastefully decorated with holiday greens and candles and a Christmas tree. A bountiful dinner was served at noon to the twenty-two members and three guests.

The regular business meeting was opened with devotions, with Mrs. J. D. Monroe and Mrs. Lettie Knickerbocker, the vice-president, in charge. Sixty-five calls were reported, many gifts of flowers and fruit taken to shut-ins and a quilt was given to a needy family.

Dickens' "Christmas Carol" was read by Miss Melissa Clark and an interesting article "Empty Stocking" was read by Mrs. C. G. Arnold, bringing to mind the many little children across the sea, facing a cheerless Christmas.

Useful handmade needle books were presented to each member of the class, as they departed, by the hostesses, Mrs. Ida Swan and Mrs. W. A. Hogate.

The January meeting will be held on the usual date with Mrs. F. J. Leonard and Mrs. H. Adams as hostesses.

The Presbyterian Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. Geo. Matthews. Mrs. Colner had charge of devotionals. The lesson was given by Mrs. J. C. Johnson. Mrs. Colner and Mrs. Blackmore. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Skiing on Belknap Crater.

Miss Belle Burkholder and about 20 Obsidians from Eugene went Sunday to Belknap Crater lava flows on the summit of the Cascades. Miss Burkholder reports hard walking for six miles through lava and very soft, wet snow, but well worth the trip as "a fine rain gave way to beautiful sunshine and lovely rainbows, temperature above freezing, a grand view of Mt. Jefferson, Black Butte and other peaks." The Belknap Crater provided fair but exciting skiing because of the falls through the holes in the lava concealed by the snow.
