MRS. E. S. MARSTERS

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. E. S. Marsters at Brownsville, Oregon, Saturday, February 5, 1938, at the age of 79 years, 11 months and 12 days.

Mrs. Marsters was the mother of Mrs. Andrew Brund, of Mount Shasta, California. Mr. and Mrs. Brund were residents of Cottage Grove for many years. They moved to California in 1936. Mr. Brund was at one time Mayor of this city and many friends here extend sincere sympathy to Mrs. Brund.

Ribs Often Misplaced

Many persons have eleven or thirteen ribs on either the right or left side of the body instead of twelve, the normal number, says Collier's Weekly.

SOCIETY

At a regular meeting of the Phi Theta Rho Girls club Monday night 17 members and Mrs. Cad Wallace, a Rebekah sister, were present. Plans were made for a skating party to be held in two weeks. Lura Wilson, Ilene Trunnell and Lois Hansen were appointed to serve on the flower committee this term. Sides were chosen for a dues contest which will close March 1. Captains are Velma Bennett and Doris Smith. Preceding the next meeting, February 21, the girls will have a 6:30 potluck dinner. The foods committee for the event is Bethel St. Elmo, Grace St. Elmo and Francis Glasgow. The girls were invited to attend the dance sponsored by the junior I.O.O.F. to be held Saturday, February 12.

The Justamere club held a 1 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. W. W. McFarland on Tuesday, February 8, this being the fourth anniversary of the club. After the luncheon bridge was played at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Griggs. Mrs. Loren Schroeder was a guest. Mrs. Walter Hunter held high score at bridge. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. P. S. Bukowski.

The Tuesday Bridge club met Tuesday afternoon, February 8, at the home of Mrs. C. S. Roberts. Mrs. F. W. Bickler and Mrs. H. H. Harms of Portland were guests. Mrs. Ruth Woodson held high score at bridge. The club will meet in two weeks, the coming meeting being an anniversary. There will be a no hostess dinner to be served in the evening when husbands of members will be invited guests.

The three circles of the ladies aid of the Christian church met in the church parlors Wednesday, February 3, for an all-day meeting. Pot-luck dinner was held at noon. The monthly business meeting was held immediately after the dinner. Plans for the coming year were discussed. Social affairs and bazaars were planned for the near future.

The auxiliary of the veterans of Foreign Wars will have their regular meeting on Friday, February 11. It will be the birthday of the auxiliary and in celebration each past president will bring a birthday cake.

The AdLibitum club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Dick Sturges. Refreshments were served after which the afternoon was spent in sewing.

The Utopia club will meet February 17 at the home of Mrs. Glennie Frost, for a 1:30 dessert.

Mrs. L. W. Coier entertained four tables at bridge Tuesday evening. Mrs. Richard Bushell won first prize, and Mrs. Wm. Haldeman the consolation. Miss Myrtle Kem was presented with a gift in honor of her birthday anniversary.

The regular meeting of the Eastern Star will be held Friday evening, with a social hour to follow the business session.

Quacks in Literature

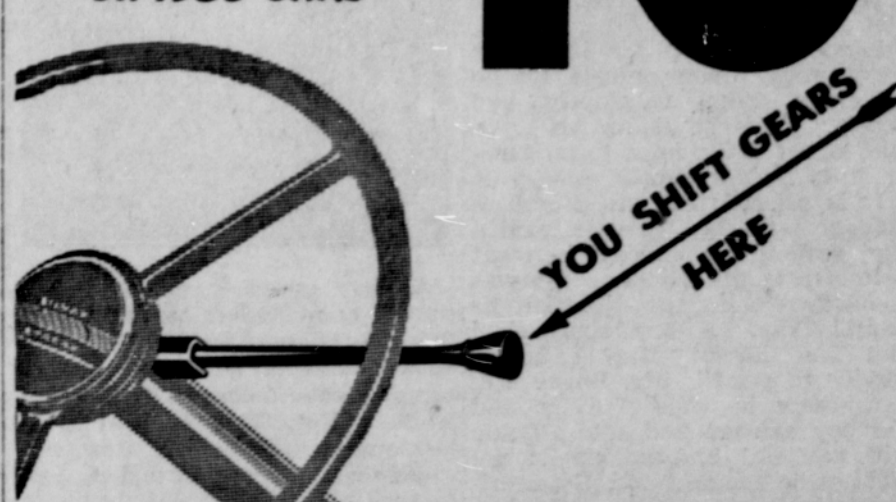

Literature has her quacks no less than medicine, and they are divided into two classes; those who have erudition without genius, and those who have volubility without depth; we shall get second-hand sense from the one, and original nonsense from the other.—Colton.
