Mrs. Graham Honored
By Eastern Star Order

At a recent meeting of the local chapter of the Order of Eastern Star, Mrs. J. P. Graham was honored on the 48th anniversary of her initiation into the order. During that forty-eight years she has not been just another member. They have been forty-eight years of active service.

Mrs. William Thum, principal of the Westside school and a member of the order, in paying tribute to Mrs. Graham said in part:

"Today Mrs. Graham is celebrating the forty-eighth anniversary of her initiation into our Order. As we look around this beautiful chapter room, with its prevailing atmosphere of beauty and dignity the consciousness of the part these pioneer members played in the development of the Eastern Star comes to us with forceful import. We who love the Order, and pray for its success, owe to Mrs. Graham and those others who 'carried on' during the meager early years of our history, a debt of gratitude we cannot repay."

"But it is our fond hope that we may have the blessing of Mrs. Graham's efficient support and loyal devotion for forty-eight future years and more."

Mrs. Graham in a reminiscent mood recalled many of the happenings of former years. Among them, she spoke of there being a flood in February, 1890, when there was water all over town and the chapter had to call a special meeting for this initiation on account of the high water on regular meeting night, so that members were unable to reach the old hall then located on South River Road. Mrs. William Thum also paid a tribute to Abraham Lincoln.

A social evening with games followed the business meeting with Mrs. Verne Williams in charge. Mrs. Verne Shortridge became an affiliated member of the chapter. The rooms were decorated by Mrs. Glennie Frost and Mrs. S. L. Godard and Mrs. Vinal Randall.
