

Lorane

Mr. and Mrs. Milo B. Stone of Washington visited recently with the E. S. Addison, A. H. Addison and George Schneider families. Mr. and Mrs. Stone were Lorane residents a number of years ago, living on the Eyanson place.

The Ugo Igo club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Marion King as hostess. Ten ladies were present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Eva Hayes April 7. Each member is to answer roll call with a garden hint.

The ladies aid met Wednesday with Mrs. Flora Stacy for an all-day meeting. The time was spent quilting for the hostess. Eighteen ladies were present.

A special grange meeting will be held March 29 when deputy state master, Arthur Brown, will be present to instruct members in floor work.

About 100 attended the "Popeye Jubilee" at the high school Thursday night. John Skelton was leader of the Goons and Mrs. Godard of the Jeeps. Several contests and games were played.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown were visitors at the Ralph Lynch home Thursday.

The girls league gave a luncheon to mothers of high school students Thursday afternoon in the high school gym. The following program was given: Welcome, Ruth Tullock, president of the league; response, Mrs. Martin Foster; song by Leona Kragenbrink, Donna Davis, June Kirk and Mabel Drew; introduction of speakers, Ruth Tullock; address, Miss Janet Smith of the students employment department, U. of O.; tap dance, June Kirk; solo "Mother," Leona Kragenbrink; skit, senior girls; piano solo, Mabel Drew; Origin of St. Patrick's day, Helen Dunn; song, glee club; guitar and harmonica, Ruth Tullock; poem, Evelyn Conrad; parody on "I'm An Old Cow Hand" by Lorane, Iris, Ann and Betty Mitchell; piano solo, Doris Hayes; song by quartet. Thirty-two guests were present.

Mrs. Hubert Addison visited in Portland several days last week.

H. A. Mitchell has sold his residence at Lorane to Ralph Franklin.

The girl scouts will meet at the high school Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Turpin and two daughters of Omak, Wash., visited the first of the week with Mrs. Turpin's uncles, Ralph and George Lynch and families.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Farar entertained with a St. Patrick's day party honoring club members. The evening was spent playing games. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Moore, Estelle Mitchell, Joe Dolan, Bill Lynch, Carl King, Otis and Loren Lynch and Russell Hensling.

Elnora Dunn has returned to Eugene after spending the past week at her home here.

Kenneth Addison, Adrian Dawson and Louis Dey have returned to O.S.C. after spending spring vacation here. Darrol Davis has returned to Oregon normal.

The final amateur contest sponsored by the Patron-Teachers will be held April 1, at the high school. All previous winners will compete for grand prize. A prize will be given for the best number in each division and one grand prize. Any contestants not able to compete, notify Mrs. Edith Dunn.

SCHOOL NEWS

The cast of the senior class play "Tiger House" has recently been completed and is as follows: Erma Lowrie, Jean King; Aunt Sophia, Claribel Caldwell; Mrs. Murdock, Marion Moore; The Mystery Woman, Jean Stubblefield; Yami, the Hindu, George Drury; Oswald Kerins, Bob Grannis; Thompson, Glen Weldon; Arthur Hale, Stewart Roberts; MacIntosh, Bill MacGibbon.

"The cast is progressing rapidly with each practice," reports

To Foot Sufferers

Dr. W. F. Holloway, of the Holloway Research Clinics, of San Francisco and Eugene, will be in your city

Saturday, March 26

Dr. Holloway is a Naturopathic Physician who has gained national repute for his work in Scientific Foot Correction, and his experience and skill enables him to correct most severe cases without pain. Do not fail to see him while he is here as you may be suffering from other serious ailments as a result of bad feet. Please phone 88 for an early appointment.

PLACE:

Cottage Grove Hotel

TIME:

March 26

Miss Kem, senior class advisor. Practices are being held after school. The play is to be presented the last week in April.

The high school will enter five groups, boys glee club, girls glee club, mixed glee, girls quartet and boys quartet, in the state music tournament to be held April 29 at Pacific University at Forest Grove. Besides these five groups, Art Edwards is entering the boys medium voice solo contest, and Pat Baldwin is entering the piano solo group. Sixteen girls and 12 boys will go. Cottage Grove is entered in class C, which includes all schools with 150 to 390 students. Last year this school entered three groups and took second place.

The boys are purchasing black sweaters and ties for uniform dress. The girls will wear blue robes as they did last year.

The Home Ec club held a short meeting Thursday to select models for the fashion operetta to be held April 1. The leads will be announced at a later date.

At the Latin club meeting Friday the members carved Roman buildings and Roman images in soap. The program committee gave a report on their progress.

The freshmen class held their annual class party Friday evening in the gym. Games were played and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. A large crowd was reported.

Stapling Machines, Sentinel.
Rubber Stamps, The Sentinel.
Duplicating Supplies, Sentinel.

Mount View

Mr. and Mrs. John Nash and Mr. and Mrs. George Cook of Divide were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Schneider.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Williams of Cottage Grove were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. Williams' brother Harry.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coffman and children spent the week end at Blodgett with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Annand and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Henry

Snauer and son visited Sunday at Creswell with Mr. and Mrs. Lon Henderson.

The Milton Layng family spent Sunday with Mrs. Layng's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rowe Awbrey, at Gowdyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Guggisberg visited Mr. Guggisberg's brother Ernest in a Eugene hospital Saturday.

Brison Sears of Divide spent Sunday here with his mother, Mrs. Amanda Sears.

Maxine Powell was an overnight visitor Sunday of Marie Williams.

Announcement No. 1

RADIO RAY

Announces His New Models for

—1938—

POPULAR PRICED

CROSLEY

Lines Including the Famous
CROSLEY Shelvador Refrigerator
CROSLEY Radios, From $19.95
CROSLEY Appliances at Low Prices

DELUXE

NORGE

Lines for Those Who Want the Finest, Including
NORGE Refrigerators
NORGE Washers
NORGE Ironers
NORGE Ranges, Gas and Electric

SERVEL

ELECTROLUX

Refrigerators, Including Kerosene
ELECTROLUX for Country Home Owners, and Gas
ELECTROLUX for the Ultimate in Quiet,
Trouble-Free Service

We have been offered many standard lines of appliances this season, and have chosen these as being the VERY BEST in their respective PRICE CLASSES—We are proud to present them on the occasion of our

March 24 14th ANNIVERSARY March 24

Watch for Announcement No. 2