A large number attended the reception Tuesday evening, April 5, at the Christian church honoring the new minister, Rev. Kechley, his wife and son. A program of addresses of welcome given by those representing various departments of the church, readings and songs was given in the main auditorium. A receiving line was formed and the Kechleys were presented to those present. After the program refreshments were served in the church parlors. The rest of the evening was spent socially.

Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Shaw of Toledo, Oregon, were present. Mr. Shaw was at one time minister of this church.

Those taking part in the program were William Kirtley, chairman of the board, an address; Vivian Lukens, a solo accompanied by Louise Lukens; Mrs. Hemmaway, an address; Readings were given by Mrs. Elsie Kirchner, Mrs. Marvel Morwood, Miss Cleora Korstjens and Miss Jerene Burroughs. Short talks on their work were given by Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Mary White and Ed Finnerty. Mrs. Albert Hull sang the hymn "Alone". Rev. Shaw and wife spoke briefly; the Powell quartet, Mrs. Abeene, Seldon Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Powell sang two numbers; Mrs. Marvin Harpole presented the Kechley family with a lovely potted plant from the church; Rev. Kechley and wife made fitting responses.

Claude Morwood presided over the meeting. The Kingfisher class serve coffee, sandwiches and cookies, assisted by their teacher, Mrs. Beach.

Tuesday, April 5, was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Clara Stevens and a group of friends surprised her that afternoon by appearing at her home bearing best wishes and refreshments. The afternoon was spent socially. Those forming the group were Mrs. Minnie Willits, Mrs. Eva Hatch, Mrs. Chas. McKibben, Mrs. Myrtle Kent, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Carl Leabo, Mrs. Vina Smith, Mrs. Stella Smith, Mrs. Susie Garoutte, Mrs. Bert Hatch, Mrs. George Kerr.

The Methodist Epworth League will go out to Grey's bridge for a weiner roast Friday night, April 8. They will leave the Methodist parsonage at 6:30. In case of rain the evening will be spent by the fireside at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor. The League has undertaken the campaign for new Methodist hymnals for the church. They expect to have them for the Easter service.

The next meeting of the Elmarcs club will be held at the home of Mrs. George Matthews, at one o'clock Tuesday, April 12.

A large number of Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their friends attended a dance at the I.O.O.F. hall Saturday evening, April 2.

Bettie Jean Waite's Essay Wins Cup in The 4-H Club Contest

Special.—Bettie Jean Waite of school district No. 101, Cushman, won the cup presented by R. C. Kuehner, county club leader, for writing the best girls' essay on marketing in the annual contest conducted among 4-H club members in Lane county the past year. Bettie Jean is a member of the Cushman school Marketing club of which Mrs. Ethel Saunders is leader.

"Bent Grass" is the topic of the essay. This grass is a valuable product of the western Lane community where Bettie lives. She has watched its planting, growth, harvesting and marketing on her father's farm and has herself taken part in each process. She has a real personal interest in Bent grass farming and has worked enthusiastically on her essay to collect statistics and exact comprehensive information.

Bettie Jean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warner Waite. Mr. Waite is a prominent western Lane farmer and member of the Cushman school board.

City Council Meets

The monthly meeting of the Cottage Grove city council was held Monday evening at the city hall. All monthly bills were allowed. The committee to review various city licenses announced reports would be made at a later meeting. A letter was read from J. D. Ross, administrator of Bonneville power relating to public opinion on how rates for Bonneville power be fixed.

A request was made by George Marquette to place an electric fence around his property on Sixth street and a committee was appointed to investigate the matter. The question of purchasing a new chlorinator was referred to the water committee.

John Safley asked that the city park be fenced but no action was taken on the matter. The council adjourned to meet in two weeks to take action on the sale of city property held for taxes and street assessments.

Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Akers
