Indian Tribes Worshipped Jaguars
Jaguars, the largest cats in the Americas, are everything from gentle pets to man-eaters. Once they have tasted human flesh they are always the latter. Their favorite prey is the dog. Several ancient Indian tribes worshipped the jaguars. Mayans, on meeting one in the forest, knelt and awaited death. It was blasphemous to kill the beast.

1. His mother whispered:
“She's wonderful, Bob—but you could teach her a thing or two about tea. Tell her to get Lipton's.”

2. Bob objected:
“Gosh, Mom, but Lipton's Tea must cost a fortune. And we're going to be poor as church mice!”

3. Mother laughed it off:
“Why, son, even as choice a tea as Lipton's costs less than any other beverage except water. And you really ought to serve the best—when the best costs so little.”
