

Cottage Grove Sentinel

VOLUME XLVIII.

(Established June 15, 1889.)

COTTAGE GROVE, LANE COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, APRIL 21, 1938

NUMBER 36

Secretary of the National Association of Tobacco Distributors, made the remark while in Portland last week that tobacco chewing is becoming a lost art. The old masters may live on in Western motion picture thrillers. Otherwise they would be forgotten, with something of benefit to this old world. They never produced anything that was uplifting or had esthetic appeal.

A bill before congress would shorten the inch by two parts in a million. A similar attack upon the national debt is expected to follow immediately.

In his effort to dispel a possible belief that he is ambitious to become a dictator, the president gives three reasons why he is opposed to dictatorship, which he designates as a, b and c. Evidently he couldn't use figures, because they have all gone into figuring the national debt, and he couldn't use capital letters because the alphabetical organizations have completely depleted the supply. It was time, anyway, that we had the elementary abc's of the thing.

Culprit in New York, who had been fined for passing a red light, when asked his occupation, said, "I am an auto instructor and I teach folks how to drive." He evidently has some correspondence pupils in Portland.

Charles Jones, movie cowboy, says kids are the same today as when grandpa was a boy. If we may use current juvenile English, "what a guy grandpa must have been!"

The birth rate of those on relief is nearly double that of non-relief families. It seems consistent that the gimmes and begetters should be found in the same homes.

Anyway no Roosevelt has yet accepted a Hollywood contract. Must be that the idea of offering one hasn't occurred to the movie directors.

Every newspaper in the first congressional district has pulled some kind of a pun on the candidacies of Mott and Nott for congress. If we could change pronunciation for the nonce, we might observe that some of the wise cracks approached, but were not quite hon mots.

The democrats must have had their eyes opened when they noted the number of persons who are willing to admit being republicans in order to file for office.

Along the Fairways

The golf course has become one of Cottage Grove's beauty spots. It is hard to keep one's eye on the ball when playing in the rough between the first and fifth fairways, there is such an array of color! Violets, buttercups, wild strawberry blossoms grow in abundance, with a few other wild flowers scattered here and there among them. It is a beautiful sight!

In last weeks column we asked for an Eagle and got it! Bill Zimmerly was the first to make one, not on the short holes but on the eighth! This is one of the long holes, being 371 yards and he set a new low of two shots for this hole. To climax a perfect day, he ended with four under Par for fourteen holes! Congratulations, Bill!

Don't forget the membership drive is still on, so sign up now and be in on the fun. The men's tournament on Sunday mornings at 9 and Ladies, Wednesdays at 1. The ladies are getting lined up for their Ladder play, and want all the ladies that play to be in this.

The ladies club was well represented Wednesday at the weekly meet, sixteen ladies being present. The best approach shot was made by Barbara Hill who won the ball with an eleven inch approach. Ella Zimmerly, Myrtle Veatch and Barbara Hill tied the putting score with 18. Ella Zimmerly winning the final playoff.

Plans were made to give a dance in the near future. The date to be announced later.

Mrs. Zimmerly and Mrs. Hill served refreshments. On next weeks committee are Mrs. Dunlop and Mrs. Barton.

Pacific Produce Has Opened a Receiving Station R. R. Station

As An Experiment If Results Justify The Establishment Of a Branch May Result

As a result of a meeting held at the Cottage Grove hotel March 29, the object of which was to determine whether it would be profitable to establish a branch of the Pacific Cooperative Poultry Producers Corporation in Cottage Grove for the buying of eggs and selling of poultry feed, that company has opened a produce receiving station at the Southern Pacific depot, which will be open on Monday and Thursday afternoons. A. W. Eppenbaugh of Creswell has been appointed manager of the station.

It is understood that this is only an experiment for the present and that if the egg and poultry producers within the Cottage Grove trading area take advantage of the opportunity to sell here instead of Eugene, the present station will be converted into a branch for the buying of eggs and selling poultry feeds.

The egg producers who attended the meeting at the hotel March 29 had generally been marketing their eggs in Eugene and buying a portion of their poultry feed there, manifested great interest in having a branch established here so that they would be able to both sell and buy here, which they rightly maintained at that time would be much better for them and at the same time result in great good to Cottage Grove as at least a portion of the $50,000 earned here and spent elsewhere each month would remain here.

Many Local Students To Take Part in State Music Contest

Twenty-nine students will leave early Friday morning, April 29, to participate Friday afternoon and Saturday in the state music contest at Forest Grove.

Those who will take part include: Girls' quartet, Patricia Baldwin, Jean King, Dorismae Blalock and Anna Lee Allen; boys' quartet, Charlie Clark, Keith Merrill, Art Edwards, Bill Bartels; girls' glee, Anna Lee Allen, Jean White, Lois Baldwin, Dorothy Gallo, Gladys Lemley, Dorothy Seimann, Claribel Caldwell, Harriet Knight, Dorismae Blalock, Patty Short, Jean King, Maryjane Smith, Betty Jones, Patricia Baldwin, Emma Lukens, Bernice Smith; boys' glee, Charlie Clark, Billy Spies, Julian Miller, Art Edwards, Keith Merrill, Donald Long, Bob Grannis, Dean Jackson, Mac Trask, Bill Bartels, Wendell Small, Loren Stiles.

They will be accompanied by Frances Hughes.

An Old Book, Masonry Or Theosophy, Which?

J. P. Graham has an interesting book supposedly treating of Masonic ritualistic work, printed in code in 1878. It is entitled "Cabala of The Aites and Ceremonies of the Cabalists" with the following explanatory note: "Revised and Arranged strictly in accordance with the standard formula."

It was printed by Redding & Co., 731 Broadway, New York City.

The word cabala is usually defined as a system of theosophy, originating in a mystical interpretation of the Scriptures among Jewish rabbis and certain Christian sects of the Middle Ages. Upon the assumption that every letter, number, and even accent of Scripture has an occult meaning, it developed a semipanthistic doctrine of emanation of the universe, of the supremacy of man's spirit over the invisible powers of evil as well as his own desires, and a claim to penetrate all mysteries and to foretell the future.

SUNDAY MUSICAL PROGRAM.

The Young People's class, De Loss Crook, President, from Light-house Temple, Eugene, will conduct a special musical program at 2:30 Sunday afternoon at Assembly of God church. Lester Swagart, artist, will draw a 6 by 12 foot picture during the entire service.

Carolers to Present Their Fourth Concert

It will be gratifying news to local music lovers to know that the Cottage Grove Carolers will present their fourth annual concert at the Arcade theatre Sunday, May 1, at 3 p. m., under the direction of John Devereaux of Eugene, with Mrs. Ruth Stewart Caldwell, accompanist.

The Carolers, an adult ladies' chorus, has been organized and presented in concert for the past three years, under the direction of Mrs. Edna Leslie Pearson of Eugene.

Special selections featuring Bernice Lewis, violinist, as a guest artist; John Devereaux in solos; Aileen Weber, Ruby Allen and Helen Tilton in trio are included in the program this year.

Call Issued For All Baseball Players

Glen Swanson has issued a call for all Cottage Grove baseball players and fans interested in putting a local team in the field this season to meet at Kelly Field Sunday at 2 p. m. The players are asked to bring their equipment and come prepared for a practice session.

Three members of last year's team have been lost to Drain, new Cascade league entry. They are Norval Libby, Buck and Jim Cellars. Rumor has it that other neighboring teams are after other Grove players, and unless steps are taken to organize a local team soon, some of the best local talent will likely be missing.

In the event of rain, the baseball meeting will be held at the Eagle Cigar Store. If a local team is organized it is likely that it will be independent, since most league schedules have been completed.

Zimmerly and Hill Tie As "Alibiers"

Bill Zimmerly and Earl Hill are the best "alibiers" in Cottage Grove. At least they came out in a tie for first place in the alibi golf tournament on the local course Sunday, with a 31.

"There will be no tournament on the local course next Sunday," Mr. Hill told a reporter. "We plan to go to Oakway at Eugene, and want all the men who can get away, to go with us."

"The Curriculum" was the subject of a speech given by Dr. J. F. Cramer, superintendent of the Eugene schools, at a meeting of the local grade and high school teachers. Forty were seated at the banquet table. Eugene Dove, president of the grade teachers' association of this city presided.

Schools to Present Music Festival

Six Hundred Students To Take Part in Annual Musical Friday Evening

The Cottage Grove Annual Music Festival will be presented Friday, April 22, in the armory. This year approximately 600 students will take part. All grades of Cottage Grove and a number of students from outside districts will participate.

As added attractions there will be a harmonica band from Dorena, a dance by the junior high girls, and the high school glee clubs will sing their state contest numbers.

The complete program follows: "Columbia Overture," "Maytime Dance," combined grade and high school orchestra.

INSPECTOR COMING FOR POST OFFICE LEASE

J. E. Fitzgerald, post office department inspector of Seattle has notified Postmaster N. J. Nelson Jr. that he will be at the Cottage Grove post office Friday, April 22 at 1:15 p. m. to contact those interested in leasing quarters for the local post office. "For your information," Mr. Fitzgerald writes, "I wish to advise that the Department requests an early report in this case and all proponents should have their proposals ready for me on the date of my arrival." The new proposals call for a five year lease.

Mrs. Harold Whitlock of Roseburg was a Monday visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ray Nelson.

May 5 Set for Final Spring Clean-Up

Thursday, May 5, has been set as the final date for "Clean-Up Week" sponsored by the local Lions club, who will provide transportation for all trash properly boxed or caked and placed in the alleys ready for hauling on that date.

The Lions club is urging that special attention be paid to vacant lots and buildings, in this spring's clean-up, in the hope that property owners of what has been eye-sore in the past will respond to the call for a more beautiful Cottage Grove.

"Lucky Londonites Step In" and Make Good Over KOAC

The radio play which was presented by the Lucky Londonites 4-H club over KOAC on Monday evening, was highly scored by those in charge of the station as being well written and played by members of the club. The name of the play was "Lucky Londonite Step In," and all members of the club took part using their own names as it was written especially for this group by their leader. Another feature of the program was an interview between R. C. Kuehner, county agent, and Mrs. Jeanne Morton, president of the Lane County Leader's association, telling of the work planned and being worked out for the year by the association.

Members of the club who went to Corvallis to broadcast were: Jacie Morton, leader, Lovelle Abeene, Lillian Geer, Lucille Abeene, Maxine Ewing, Marjorie Woodard and Marcelle Abeene. They were accompanied by Mrs. Morton and Mr. Kuehner.

DR. LEBOW TO MOVE OFFICE

Dr. W. E. Lebow, who has practiced dentistry for 16 years in one location—Fifth and Main, will move next week to a newly remodeled suite in the Omer apartments. "I expect to have just as modern and complete an office as can be found in Eugene when I get settled in my new quarters," Dr. Lebow stated. He plans to install a new X-ray, and other modern equipment in the near future.

Councilman Safley, chairman of the city park commission has been authorized by the city council to cooperate with John Palmer in building a fence along the eastern boundary of the park and the park committee has been authorized to purchase the amount of paint authorized in the budget.

Booster Banquet to Be Well Attended

Liberal Response Advance Ticket Sales for Chamber of Commerce Program

Nearly 125 tickets had been sold Thursday for the Community Booster Banquet, sponsored by the chamber of commerce, to be held Friday evening at 6:30 P. M. in the I. O. O. F. dining room. Ticket sales will continue until Friday noon, and the committee members urge that everyone interested in attending contact Fred Knickerbocker, committee chairman, or other members of the committee before Friday noon, if they have not purchased tickets, since accommodations are limited and efforts will be made to fill all available table space.

Mac Wilkins, of Mac Wilkins & Cole, Portland advertising firm, will high light the program. The speaker is rated as one of the best in Portland, and he will have a message of interest to every man and woman who has the welfare of the city at heart.

The banquet will be the "kick-off" for what members of the chamber of commerce are determined will be a united effort on the part of all progressive merchants and property owners to "Build Cottage Grove."

Information released at a recent chamber of commerce meeting indicates that more than a half million dollars annually, in currency, earned in the Cottage Grove territory, and paid to local wage earners, is spent outside the city. Following this disclosure H. E. Eakin, chamber president, announced the appointment of a committee headed by Fred Knickerbocker, and including A. W. Heliwell, Vinal Randall, Carl Rynearson, and J. R. Blalock to work out a program for the improvement of the city. This committee has held several meetings with other interested business men cooperating, including L. E. Brisbane, Mayor Cleo Mofelock, Lorin Schroeder and C. J. Kem. They have outlined a year's program of activity, which will be discussed at the banquet Friday evening.

Local Trapshooters Tally 74 Sunday

Heck and Cooper Go Straight, Rentle and Ensley Break 24; Latter Takes 97 out of 100.

With but one more shoot in the Oregonian telegraphic trapshoot tournament, the local Rod and Gun club team seems destined to place among the 15 high teams of the northwest who will journey to Bend in June for the final shoot-off. The local team scored a 74 Sunday out of a possible 75, with three wins and one tie, by virtue of Ed Heck and Kelly Cooper's 25, and Harry Rentle and Jeff Ensley's 24. Cooper went on to set the record of the day with 50 straight, while Ensley broke 97 out of 100, to place him among the men to beat in the state. Heck broke 71 out of 75 at the 16-yard post, and 46 out of 56 on the 20, 24 and greater distances.

Other local men breaking in the twenties Sunday were: Alton Woodard 23, Pete Nelson 22, W. Hileman 23, P. M. Beach 20, Chas. Hall 23, Vic Chambers 22, M. Harpole 22, Richard Smith 20. Shooting for the Dexter club F. Kimball broke 22 and Clive Taylor 20.

Few teams in the state have made as great a progress in the past year as the local shooters, and with similar improvement during the coming year the local club should be able to develop a five-man team that will rate with any team in the state.

AN EGG WITH A TAIL.

Did you ever see an egg with a tail? Mrs. Clifford Smith brought one to The Sentinel office the day after Easter Sunday, believe it or not. The hen which laid it must have had some way of knowing that it was Easter and that it was up to her to do something out of the ordinary.

That radish with claws, which allegedly grew on Route F, Eugene, is certainly not in a class with our egg with a tail and the egg shaped like a dumbbell, the kind you can use for your morning exercise, not those who eat radishes with claws, if there be such in Oregon.

The Family Spends A Quiet Week End In Nature's Playground
