Miss Violet's got Rhythm

Miss Violet Parsons, she gives piano lessons, so I'm tryin' to talk her language.

"Miss Parsons," I says, "drivin' a car nowadays is like doin' that 'Big Apple' dance. It's all stop and go. I bet you stop and start a dozen times a day, going around givin' kids lessons.

"Well, when you do stop your car, your oil all drains off the movin' parts in your engine. Then you start up. Right there a lot of wear happens.

"That is, unless you use an oil that 'snaps into it'—flows fast, you know, whenever you start.

"Now, we got that kind of oil. Here it is right here," I says, showin' a bottle of Golden Shell.

"And it's only a quarter.

"Gosh, Miss Violet, it just makes music in your motor! . . ."

"All oil just looks gooey to me," she comes back.

* * *

Miss Parsons ain't mechanical, you see. But I ain't musical, so that makes us even, I guess. Anyway, Miss Violet's got rhythm in her motor since she took my advice and bought Golden Shell.

Sincerely,

Your Shell Dealer
